THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

MESSAGE TO THE NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE
New York, 17 - 28 March 2013

You gather for this Model United Nations at a time of profound turmoil, transition and transformation. Insecurity, inequality and intolerance are spreading. Governments are wasting vast and precious funds on deadly weapons while reducing investments in people. Too many people in power seem wilfully blind to the threat of climate change. Citizens yearn for jobs and the prospect of a decent life, but all too often they get divisiveness and delay instead.

There have been significant steps forward. Extreme poverty has been cut in half since the year 2000. Democratic transitions are under way in the Arab world, Myanmar and elsewhere. Africa's economic growth has become the fastest in the world. Latin America and Asia continue to make important advances. Still, we must raise our levels of ambition. I have set out an action agenda that focuses on five imperatives: sustainable development; preventing conflicts, damage from disasters and human rights abuses; building a more secure world; supporting countries in transition; and empowering the world's women and young people.

You are part of the largest generation of young people our world has ever known. Yet opportunities for youth are falling short. Youth unemployment rates are at record levels. Many are stuck in low-wage, dead-end work, despite having college degrees. We must work together to help young people make the most of their energies, ideas and leadership potential.

By participating in this Model United Nations, you will sharpen your negotiating skills and gain insights into what it takes to achieve consensus and progress. Armed with these assets, you can mobilize and engage on the major issues of our day. From raising awareness through social media to joining forces in other ways with students from around the world, you can make your voices heard and drive political and social change.

This is an era of great uncertainty, but also one of profound opportunity. No single leader, country or institution can do everything. But each of us, in our own way, can do something. Together, as partners, we can meet today's tests and seize the opportunities of an era of dramatic change. I wish you great success at this Model UN, and I hope the experience will inspire you to support our global work for peace, justice, human rights and sustainable development for years to come.

Dear Delegates, Advisors, Staff and Friends,

Welcome to the 2013 National Model United Nations Conference and to New York City! First of all, thank you for all of your efforts, hard work, and dedication during the past months. I hope you enjoyed the preparation for this year's conference as much as we did! The upcoming week offers the chance to change your lives and the way you see the world. You will meet and work with students of diverse cultural, social and religious backgrounds from six different continents.

The NMUN Secretariat (the NMUN Volunteer Staff) and our sponsor, the National Collegiate Conference Association (NCCA), take pride in offering this program to more than 5,000 college and university students from over 40 UN Member States. It is our goal and our mission to provide you with the best educational experience possible; therefore, we have prepared 60 different topics for 20 committees. We are looking forward to seeing you engage in discussions, finding compromise, and working towards solutions to these challenging issues that our world faces today.

This year's theme for NMUN•NY reflects how NMUN fosters learning about and understanding the world. We hope that NMUN inspires every student to gain new perspectives and contribute to their communities around the globe. The theme, "Change Your World," calls on every participant to reflect on the learning experiences they have through NMUN and encourages you to get involved in making your community, your world, a bit better; to change not just your world, but our world as well.

On behalf of the Volunteer Staff of the 2013 National Model United Nations Conference, I wish you an enriching, challenging and fantastic week. I sincerely hope that you will leave New York City and this conference with a renewed sense of purpose to do your best to change your world!

If we can assist you in any way please do not hesitate to contact us.

Best regards,

Miriam Müller

2013 NMUN Secretary-General

The NCCA-NMUN is a Non-Governmental Organization associated with the United Nations and a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization of the United States.

For more than 40 years, the National Collegiate Conference Association (NCCA) has sponsored experience-based educational programs like NMUN that further the understanding of the United Nations and contemporary international problems.

NMUN•NY 2013 will bring more than 5,000 delegates from six continents to New York City. This conference includes 20 committees as well as two Additional Security Councils. Prominent past speakers have included Susan E. Rice, Dikembe Mutombo, then U.S. First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton (video address), Michael Ignatieff, and UN Secretaries-General Ban Ki-moon and Kofi Annan. NMUN offers a unique opportunity for students to better understand the inner workings of the United Nations while building skills in diplomacy and compromise. College students and advisors from all over the world work feverishly to propose resolutions addressing regional conflicts, peacekeeping, human rights, women and children, economic and social development, and the environment. A diverse group of informed participants is given a forum in which to discuss global concerns in a context that closely parallels the real world. The NMUN Conference is one of the most effective tools for teaching students the dynamics of multilateral diplomacy and international relations.

In the coming 12 months NMUN will hold US conferences in New York City, Washington, DC and Portland, Oregon. We have achieved groundbreaking milestones through international conferences. In the past five years simulations have been held in China, Ecuador, the Czech Republic and France. In November 2013, we look forward to NMUN•Korea. Thank you to our partner organizations for their vision and support of our mission — Osgood Center for International Studies, Yonsei University, Northwest Model United Nations, Northwestern Polytechnical University, Universidad San Francisco de Quito, Palacký University and Science Po Lille. We look forward to future conference partnerships and welcome your inquiry into potential opportunities.

The National Collegiate Conference Association (NCCA) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, educational organization. The NCCA is also a Non-Governmental Organization associated with the United Nations Department of Public Information.

NMUN PROVIDES AN IMPRESSIVE BACKDROP FOR LEARNING

NMUN • DC

25 - 27 OCTOBER 2013: Since 2007, NMUN•DC has offered delegates a forum to discuss current events in the US capital. An opening session at the US Department of State offers future leaders a sense of how diplomats implement foreign policy. The conference boasts access to briefings by US government experts and from embassies. Outside committee, the museums and monuments delight delegates. NMUN•DC is held in partnership with the Osgood Center for International Studies.

NMUN • KOREA

24 NOVEMBER - 2 DECEMBER 2013: The new Songdo International City was constructed in the greater Seoul metropolitan area as a center for international business, education and United Nations offices, including the UN Climate Fund. In addition to rigorous debate on pressing world concerns, delegates will interact with UN officials, tour Seoul's imperial palaces and modern urban center, and witness the UN in action at the demilitarized zone. NMUN•Korea will be held in partnership with Yonsei University.

NMUN • NW PORTLAND 2014

14 - 16 FEBRUARY 2014: Portland, Oregon, in the heart of the beautiful Pacific Northwest, is home to a youthful, active, environmentally-conscious culture, as well as a thriving music scene. It is also a paradise for readers, hipsters, hikers and tech entrepreneurs alike. Co-sponsored by Northwest Model United Nations, NMUN•NW will engage students in discussions of global issues while simultaneously offering them an unrivaled experience both within the city and in the natural beauty surrounding it.

The National Collegiate Conference Association (NCCA) prepares college students to be better global citizens. These experiences are valuable for student delegates and advisors. However, financial constraints often are a barrier to participation for both student participants and volunteer staff members. Thanks to our donors, listed below, we are able to reduce some financial barriers. We invite contributions from individuals, corporations and foundations. For U.S. residents, your donation is tax deductible as a charitable contribution. Visit nmun.org/give.html to learn more.

RECOGNIZING COMMITMENT TO THE NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

Here we recognize those institutions for which participation is a school tradition. The long-term support of these schools reflects the hard work and dedication of advisors, students and administrators. It shows commitment to experiential learning opportunities like NMUN as well as the ideals embodied by the United Nations.

The NCCA, sponsor of the NMUN, is greatly indebted to many of these schools and their advisors for their leadership in continuing to enhance the conference. We look forward to welcoming more schools to this listing in the future as new institutions start a NMUN tradition and returning schools continue to build a legacy.

DELEGATES

While participating in the National Model UN conference, delegates have a responsibility to always maintain the highest level of professionalism and diplomacy. Conference staff, advisors and fellow delegates should be treated with the highest level of courtesy and respect. Professionalism in speech, actions, and appearance by delegates is a requirement of this conference, and necessary to its educational mission. It is assumed that all delegates will respect the property of the United Nations and the host hotels.

NMUN reserves the right to restrict future registration for any participant or school, whose delegates or advisors are not able to uphold their responsibility to the conference's code of conduct.

Delegates are expected to:

- Remain "in character" by consistently advocating the interests and representing the policies of the country assigned. To act "in character" also entails displaying respect for the opinions and ideas of fellow delegates, even if these opinions and ideas conflict with a given delegate's own country's priorities.
- Collaborate with fellow delegates when possible.
- Be courteous and professional at all times.

Delegates who disrupt committee sessions or create problems may be barred from further participation in the conference:

- Please drink responsibly. Excessive alcohol consumption should be avoided. The US legal drinking age is 21.
- The consumption of alcohol and other drugs in committee sessions is forbidden.
- Any issues related to illicit drugs will be immediately directed to the attention of local authorities.

Delegates are encouraged to enjoy the variety of nighttime activities available. Please bear in mind, however, the purpose of being here is your participation in NMUN.

HEAD DELEGATES

Head delegates provide leadership to their delegates and to other delegations by serving as information resources. They should attend and participate in head delegate meetings. Head delegates may be assigned to a committee or may serve solely in an advisory role. Head delegates assigned to a committee should observe the delegate code of conduct. Those not assigned to a particular committee should interact with delegates as would an advisor.

ADVISORS

The role of advisors, while at the conference, is to make all efforts to see that their students maintain a positive and professional approach to the conference. The educational quality of the conference is primarily dependent on all delegates' active and professional participation. Advisors can ensure this by monitoring their students' attendance at committee meetings and helping them understand the skills of diplomacy as practiced at National Model UN. Advisors must maintain the highest level of professionalism toward all conference participants and staff.

During the conference, advisors are encouraged to advise students on specific questions such as a state's policy or issues of international law, but must not participate in the actual writing of resolutions or caucusing activities. NMUN allows students an opportunity to demonstrate their preparation and research skills. While advisors are encouraged to observe their students from the back of committee rooms, participation in the committee process must be left to the student delegates and the conference staff.

Advisors are expected to:

- Provide leadership to their delegates and to other delegations by serving as information resources when appropriate.
- Respond to questions and concerns without interfering with the work of the committees or the deliberations of delegates, whether in formal session or in caucus.
- Refrain from using academic credit and grading policies that force participation beyond that country's normal position in the UN.
- Remind their delegates of the educational purpose of the simulation. Awards should not be a delegation's main emphasis.
- Attend and participate in advisor meetings.
- Offer suggestions and assistance to new advisors.

DRESS CODE

All clothing must adhere to guidelines that portray professionalism and modesty. If a delegate's attire is deemed inappropriate by NMUN staff, the delegate will be asked to leave the session and return with appropriate attire.

- Standard delegate attire for the conference is business jacket, slacks (or skirts for women), dress shirt (with tie for men) and dress shoes.
- Dress sweaters, shorts, ball caps, jeans, sneakers and sunglasses are considered too casual. Clothes that expose excessive bare skin or are otherwise revealing are inappropriate.
- It is not appropriate for delegates to display any national symbols such as flags, pins, crests, etc. on their person during sessions. UN symbols are acceptable.

Western business dress is preferred. Traditional dress is only permitted for international delegates in whose native countries "professional business dress" includes traditional cultural dress. NMUN will not tolerate any delegate's attempt to portray a "character" using traditional cultural attire as costume.

As role models for delegates, volunteer staff, advisors and guests are required to dress in western business attire while participating in scheduled conference sessions.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT/ DISCRIMINATION POLICY

It is the intention of the NCCA that the environment of National Model United Nations supports our educational goal. The organizers will not tolerate any instances of discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age, or disability.

If any delegate, staff or advisor believes they have encountered discrimination, which results in a hostile working environment or disparate treatment, they must bring it to the attention of the Secretary-General of the conference. In the event that this is not possible, they must bring it to the attention of the organizers. The NCCA will investigate the merits of the allegations, interviewing all parties involved.

Based on the findings, organizers may:

- take no action
- issue a verbal reprimand
- separate the individual from the conference
- implement any other action deemed appropriate

DELEGATION AWARDS

National Model United Nations has established criteria for evaluating delegate performance. Each element is equally important to the overall awards determination process. All committees are weighted equally, and delegations are rated on a mathematical formula in relation to the total number of committees represented by the individual Member State.

Areas of evaluation are:

- Remaining in character – defined as advocating your assigned country's position in a manner consistent with economic, social and geopolitical constraints.
- Participating in committee – evaluated both during formal sessions and caucusing.
- Proper use of the rules of procedure – NMUN uses the rules of procedure to facilitate effective workings of committee and debate.

See nmun.org/policies\_codes.html for information on the procedure for addressing code of conduct violations.

CONFERENCE SERVICES PROCEDURE

1. A maximum of two delegates will be allowed in Conference Services to work on each resolution at any one time. Delegates are expected to write their resolutions outside of the lab, and bring them in for typing or revision.

NOTE: Delegates are generally seated on a first-come, first-served basis. Delegates from committees not already working at a computer in the lab will be given preference when the lab is full. The USG for Conference Services reserves the authority to grant an earlier place in line to a delegate.

2. There will be no food and/or beverages allowed in Conference Services.
3. Internet resources are only for research use. Delegates will not be permitted to check their e-mail.
4. Delegates entering Conference Services must register at the door and leave their delegate badge in order to use the computers. Once a delegate has finished typing, s/he should print and save the resolution according to the posted guidelines. Delegates will then be able to retrieve their delegate badges on the way out.
5. Photocopies will be made for the delegates at a charge of $.10 per copy. Working papers and resolutions approved by the Director of the committee will be copied free of charge.

COMPUTERS IN COMMITTEE

While laptop computers are allowed in committee during informal session, their use during formal session (when delegates are speaking) should be limited to the hallway (or the back of the room in large rooms). The spirit of this policy is to avoid disruption of and show respect for the speaker.

CHANGES TO SPEAKERS TIME

Speakers time is set on the first night to 2 minutes (except General Assembly/full-size bodies where it is 90 seconds due to size and number of speeches). No motions to change the time on the first night will be accepted.

No unsolicited motions on speaking time will be accepted during the rest of the week. If members feel that the time needs to be changed to improve flow of debate or hear more speeches, they should approach the dais – and if the chair agrees, the chair will call for a motion. No motions will be taken from the floor.

Model Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation
Tianjin, China Summer 2013

Throughout this conference, students and delegates will represent Member Economies of this dynamic region in discussing wide-reaching technical, political, and economic issues affecting this critical part of the world.

While heavily influenced by the Model UN format, Model-APEC offers its own unique dynamic and specific focus on international economics. We aspire to make Model-APEC a critical forum for educating students from all over the world on issues such as international development, business and economics, as well as the technical and security elements of these policy areas

2013 Summer Symposium on Foreign Policy July 28-August 8, 2013

This two week symposium is the flagship program of the Osgood Center, celebrating 33 years. Seminars and discussions will focus on how the Obama Administration will explore an unsettled and rapidly shifting international political climate:

How will the administration address ongoing uncertainty and unrest in the Middle East? What are the implications of the strategic "pivot towards Asia" for US-

Chinese relations? How will rising powers reshape the role and composition of international organizations and institutions? Will persistent economic malaise in the Euro-zone inhibit growth in the 21st Century? The Summer Symposium will explore these issues and how the Obama Administration will address them while shifting into a new foreign policy.
