Conference A: 29 March - 2 April
Conference B: 5 - 9 April

NMUN advances understanding of the UN and contemporary global issues through quality educational programs that emphasize collaboration and cooperative conflict resolution and prepares participants for active global citizenship.

NMUN programs require college and university students to apply their academic knowledge actively while simulating the work of diplomats in experiential learning programs that demand their collaboration with their peers from various nations to craft negotiated solutions to current global problems. Students must research, craft, and then advocate positions with which they may or may not agree. Participants strengthen through practice the skills of listening, persuasion, and negotiating, while developing a deeper capacity for empathy and creative problem solving.

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

MESSAGE TO THE NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

2020 CONFERENCE, (NMUN•NY)

New York, 29 March-2 April 2020

New York, 5-9 April 2020

Thank you for taking part in this Model United Nations. I am inspired by your commitment to tackling the biggest issues of our time: peace, climate change, sustainable development, human rights and the potential and peril of new technologies.

Our interconnected world has achieved remarkable progress in recent years. Yet we face enormous risks.

The climate crisis is a clear and present danger. The world needs your energy to increase ambition and hold leaders to account. I draw great hope from seeing your generation rally for action.

As we enter a decisive Decade of Action to deliver the Sustainable Development Goals, we need a global mobilization. We need to invest in the world's women and girls. We need to take a stand against the spread of hatred. And we need to do it together, guided by our shared values and a renewed commitment in international cooperation.

This year is the 75th anniversary of the United Nations. As we mark this milestone, I want to hear from you – about your needs and aspirations, and your ideas for our common future. Please join the discussion and take the surveys we are launching.

Together, we can build a better world for all.

In that spirit of partnership, I wish you a successful Model UN conference.

SHARING THE WORLD'S STORIES

A special thanks to the United Nations Department of Global Communications for their decades of assistance to NMUN.

THE 2020 NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

New York City, 29 March-2 April and 5-9 April

Dear Delegates, Faculty Advisors, Guests, and Friends,

We are honored to welcome you to the 2020 National Model United Nations New York (NMUN•NY) Conference. Throughout these next two weeks, thousands of attendees from around the world will gather together to participate in a phenomenal simulation and discuss key global issues. We hope that this year's conference will be a unique, enriching experience and we challenge you to fully dedicate yourselves to solution-oriented debates and diplomatic negotiations with your peers.

NMUN has profoundly impacted our lives in the most positive of ways. Our introduction to this conference exposed us to how much of the world we were unfamiliar; we realized how much we did not comprehend. NMUN shone a light of understanding which has propelled our academic, personal, and professional growth. As young women, our participation in the conference has empowered us to engage in our societies and to fight for a world free of discrimination where race, religious beliefs, gender identity, sexual orientation, and ethnicity are not barriers for achieving dreams and accomplishing goals. NMUN helped to teach us the importance of fully embracing diversity and valuing cultural differences.

The theme for this year's conference is "Light Your Vision." We were especially inspired by peers from NMUN that shared our vision for a better world. Our hope for you this week is that you will find or reinvigorate your passion for enlightening the world with a vision for progress, development, equality, empowerment, and compassion. As you work together with your fellow delegates, we are confident that you will light your vision and help create an inclusive, respectful environment. Your opportunities for the week ahead are so valuable as you address the most significant issues of our time through diplomacy and collaboration. We hope that you find in NMUN what we have.

NMUN•NY brings together the next generation of global leaders to share their knowledge, their ideas, their beliefs, and to become a true inspiration for youth around the world. You are now part of it! Show the world what we are capable of when we work together and enjoy this experience to the fullest. Take back home, to your school and local community what you have learned at the conference and replicate it in your everyday life.

We are deeply inspired by the time and effort you have put into preparing for the conference. Thank you for embracing the collaborative spirit of the United Nations and participating in our conference which enriches the lives of the thousands of young people that attend NMUN every year.

Sincerely,

Angela M. Shively

Faculty, Guests, and Head Delegates not assigned to a committee are encouraged to attend.

Join Alynna J. Lyon for a discussion of her book US Politics and the United Nations: A Tale of Dysfunctional Dynamics (Lynne Rienner, 2016). Alynna is a Professor of Political Science at the University of New Hampshire. She is also a co-author of The United Nations in the 21 Century, 5th ed. (Westview, 2016) with Karen Mingst and Margaret Karns, and co-editor of two books, Pope Francis as a Global Actor: Where Politics and Theology Meet (Palgrave 2018) and Religion and Politics in a Global Society (Lexington 2013). Her research focus includes the United Nations, U.S. Foreign Policy, multilateralism and moral authority at the global level. She is past chair of the International Organization section of the International Studies Association (2016-2018). She is currently co-Editor-in-Chief for the journal Global Governance and serves on the Editorial Board of International Studies Quarterly. In her teaching, Professor Lyon is an advocate of experiential learning and has served as a Faculty Advisor for Model United Nations since 2000.

Join NMUN in Support of the Seventy-Fifth Anniversary of the United Nations

Join our volunteer staff – committed to the ideals of the United Nations!

We seek enthusiastic NMUN alumni from around the globe who are willing to help organize the world's largest university-level simulation of the United Nations. Many of our volunteer staff members are current undergraduate or graduate students.

Volunteers with expertise in research, committee management, and conference organization are needed.

Build skills in facilitation of debate, conflict resolution, and customer service. Learn, alongside delegates, about current global issues. Form lifelong friendships with other volunteers.

We offer in-depth training, provide hotel accommodations, and help pay for most travel expenses.

Apply at: nmun.org/get-involved/volunteer.html

Abbreviations for where each school is located are from the UN Statistics Division.

Here we recognize those institutions for which participation is a school tradition. The long-term support of these schools reflects the hard work and dedication of faculty advisors, students, and administrators. It shows commitment to experiential learning opportunities like NMUN as well as the ideals embodied by the United Nations. We are greatly indebted to them for their leadership in continuing to enhance the conference. We look forward to welcoming more schools to this list in the future as new institutions start an NMUN tradition and returning schools continue to build a legacy. Data is self-reported on conference applications. Schools without () are located in the United States.

Expectations of Conduct

Our intention is to create an environment at National Model United Nations (NMUN) that supports our educational mission. Professionalism in speech, actions, and appearance by all participants (delegates, head delegates, faculty, delegation leaders, guests, secretariat, staff, and board members) is a requirement of all NMUN conferences. These guidelines are provided to help establish clear expectations.

Concerns about individual behavior in committee should first be addressed to the volunteer staff in committee. Larger concerns, such as violence, sexual harassment, or discrimination issues, may be referred to conference organizers. Organizers may also be contacted directly through information services volunteer staff.

NMUN reserves the right to bar violators from further participation and/or restrict future registration for any participant or school unable to uphold their responsibility to the conference's expectations.

Everyone

- Treat everyone, including non-NMUN hotel guests, with the highest level of courtesy and respect at all times, including on social media and in electronic communications.
- Enjoy the variety of activities available at our conference venues. Please bear in mind, however, that the purpose of being here is participation in NMUN.
- Disruption of committee sessions or causing problems in the hotel or other facilities will not be tolerated.
- Respect academic integrity; plagiarism will not be tolerated.
- Alcohol is not allowed in any of our committee sessions. If you are going to drink, please drink responsibly. Excessive alcohol consumption should be avoided. The U.S. legal drinking age is 21.
- Possession or use of illicit drugs is prohibited at all times. Any issues related to illicit drugs may be directed to the attention of local authorities.
- Follow the Dress Code while attending conference events.
- Respect the property of the United Nations, our host hotels, and any other facilities used. Keep in mind that our facility partners have separate policies that include the potential for removal from their properties.

Delegates

- Remain in character by consistently advocating the interests and representing the policies of the country assigned. To act in character also entails displaying respect for the opinions and ideas of fellow delegates, even if these opinions and ideas conflict with a given delegate's own country's priorities.
- Collaborate with fellow delegates whenever possible.

Head Delegates

- If assigned to a committee, follow the delegates expectations. If serving solely in an advisory role, follow the faculty expectations.
- Attend and participate in head delegates meetings.

Faculty Advisors

- Make efforts to ensure that students maintain a positive and professional approach to the conference and help them understand the skills of diplomacy as practiced at NMUN.
- Serve as information resources when appropriate, but do not participate in the actual writing of resolutions or caucusing activities; participation in the committee process must be left to the student delegates and the conference volunteer staff.
- Quietly observe your students from the back of committee rooms.
- Refrain from using academic credit and grading policies that force participation beyond a country's normal position in the UN; awards should not be a delegation's main emphasis.
- Attend and participate in any faculty advisors meetings.

Guests

- Guests are required to adhere to the same expectations as all other conference attendees.
- Guests serve as observers.
- Guests may not be enrolled university students or faculty advisors and do not provide any support to a delegation. A guest is typically a school official, spouse/partner of a faculty advisor, or a funder who is interested in learning about NMUN.

Dress Code

All clothing must portray professionalism as expected in diplomatic settings. If attire is deemed inappropriate by NMUN staff, individuals may be asked to leave the session and return with appropriate attire.

- Professional business attire is a business jacket, dress shirt, tie, slacks/skirt/dress, and dress shoes. Professional dress expectations require that dresses and skirts be knee length. Delegates should be dressed in professional business attire that reflects their self-identified gender.
- Clothing considered too casual includes sweaters, novelty jackets, shorts, sundresses/other casual dresses, ball caps, jeans, sneakers, athletic wear, and sunglasses. Clothing that exposes excessive bare skin, shows undergarments, or is otherwise revealing is inappropriate.
- It is not appropriate to display any national symbols such as flags, pins, crests, etc. on your person during sessions. All UN symbols are acceptable.
- Traditional dress is permitted only for delegations in whose home countries it is considered professional business dress. NMUN will not tolerate any attempt to portray a character using traditional cultural attire as a costume.

Faculty advisors, delegation leaders, guests, and volunteer staff serve as role models for delegates. They too are required to dress in professional business attire while participating in scheduled conference sessions.

Sexual Harassment & Discrimination

Sexual harassment or discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age, or disability is not acceptable. Such acts are incompatible with NMUN's educational mission and are a violation of our Conduct Expectations. Violators may be expelled from the conference without compensation. General descriptions of behavior that may be considered sexual harassment can be found at: <https://sapac.umich.edu/article/63>.

Anyone who believes they have seen or encountered sexual harassment or discrimination should bring it to NMUN's attention. We will investigate the merits of the allegations and respond appropriately. Outcomes may include taking no action, issuing a verbal reprimand, separating individuals from the conference, or any other action deemed appropriate.

Safety & Security

Your safety and security are your personal responsibility. Take full advantage of this unique opportunity in a responsible manner. Please do not leave your computer or other personal electronic devices unattended. Remove conference badges when leaving the hotel. Refrain from any sort of substance abuse. Use common sense.

In the event of an emergency in the hotel or UN, follow their guidelines. Emergency preparedness experts recommend having a designated meeting spot outside the hotel and sharing cell phone numbers amongst members of your delegation.

Awards Criteria

National Model United Nations (NMUN) has established criteria to evaluate delegate performance. Each element is equally important to the overall awards determination process. All committees are weighted equally, and delegations are rated on a mathematical formula in relation to the total number of committees represented by the individual member state. Areas of evaluation are:

- Remaining in character - advocate for your assigned country's position in a manner consistent with its economic, social, and geopolitical constraints.
- Participating in committee - during both formal sessions and informal caucuses.
- Using the NMUN Rules of Procedure properly - facilitate effective workings of the committee and debate, don't impede it.

About Us

NMUN traces its beginnings to a 1927 Model League of Nations. Our UN simulation started with the General Assembly and then expanded and transitioned to include other organs. After rotating among mid-Atlantic colleges, it has been held annually in New York City since 1964. Throughout its history, the conference has offered an experience-based educational program that furthers the understanding of contemporary international problems. For more about our history, visit: nmun.org/about-nmun/mission-and-history.html.

Today, NMUN•NY is the world's largest intercollegiate Model UN simulation. The 2020 New York conference will bring together thousands of delegates from six continents. This conference includes 22 committees as well as an additional Security Council. NMUN offers a unique opportunity for students to better understand the inner workings of the United Nations while building skills in diplomacy and compromise. College and university students from all over the world work feverishly to propose resolutions addressing regional conflicts, peacekeeping, human rights, women and children, economic and social development, and the environment.

NMUN conferences are one of the most effective tools for teaching students the dynamics of multilateral diplomacy and international relations. They provide a diverse group of informed participants a forum in which to discuss global concerns in a context that closely parallels the real world.

NMUN will hold upcoming conferences in New York City; Washington, DC; Kobe, Japan; and Olomouc, Czech Republic. Since 2008, international simulations have been held in China, Ecuador, the Czech Republic, France, Germany, the Republic of Korea, Italy, Japan, and Canada. Thank you to our partner organizations for their vision and support of our mission. We look forward to future conference partnerships and welcome your inquiry into potential opportunities.

NMUN is a U.S. 501(c)(3) nonprofit, educational organization; a nongovernmental organization formally associated with the United Nations Department of Global Communications, and a United Nations Academic Impact Member.

“The fact that societies are becoming increasingly multi-ethnic, multicultural and multi-religious is good. Diversity is a strength, not a weakness. To foster inclusion, states and societies must invest, politically, economically, socially and culturally, to avoid discrimination, intolerance, xenophobia and extremism, and ensure people have a sense of belonging.”

PREPARE FOR A GLOBAL CAREER

Shifting dynamics between global powers, the rise of new and dangerous political ideologies, and the evolution of technology into a threat against our everyday lives, are all contributing to governments, countries, and society at large undergoing dramatic and far-reaching transformations. While each issue that arises poses its own dilemma, they are all undeniably intertwined. It is the global professional with the insight and understanding of the complex factors at play, who will be of greatest value.

The NYU School of Professional Studies Center for Global Affairs offers degree programs that prepare you for the pressing issues we face. Our interdisciplinary approach uniquely positions you to problem-solve in innovative ways.

Study with leading international experts in the heart of NYC, the seat of the United Nations and the financial capital of the world while benefiting from Global Field Intensives, guest lecturers, and the professional experience of faculty members who have made these issues their life's work in and outside the classroom. Gain the NYU education that sets you apart and gives you what it takes to succeed now and in the years to come.

“Maxwell gave me a push”

While based in Maxwell’s Washington, D.C., headquarters, Roza Vasileva took classes in international affairs while also interning at the World Bank. It proved a powerful combination.

She saw how, in developing nations, information and communication technology (ICT) helps promote economic growth, citizen involvement, and government transparency. She helped pilot the Open Data Readiness Assessment — tested in Russia and since applied in dozens of countries. After graduation, she stayed on with the World Bank; her internship turned into a job.

UNITING NATIONS

As a United Nations Peacekeeping Operations Intern, Morgan analyzed issues related to child protection, HIV/AIDS, gender, conflict and peacekeeping reform. She represented the student voice at high-level forums, events and briefings while serving as a UN Youth Representative.

Morgan didn't wait until after graduation to start working to unite nations, and at Seton Hall you won't have to either.
