NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

nmun.org

Conference A: 3–7 April
Conference B: 10–14 April

NMUN advances understanding of the UN and contemporary global issues through quality educational programs that emphasize collaboration and cooperative conflict resolution and prepare participants for active global citizenship.

NMUN programs require college and university students to apply their academic knowledge actively while simulating the work of diplomats in experiential learning programs that demand their collaboration with their peers from various nations to craft negotiated solutions to current global problems. Students must research, craft, and then advocate positions with which they may or may not agree. Participants strengthen through practice the skills of listening, persuasion, and negotiating while developing a deeper capacity for empathy and creative problem-solving.

NATIONS UNIES

THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

MESSAGE TO NEW YORK NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

New York, 3 -7 April 2022

New York, 10 - 14 April 2022

Thank you for taking part in the Model United Nations and for believing in the power of global cooperation to solve global problems. Our world needs your engagement and ideas more than ever.

We face the greatest cascade of crises in our lifetimes.

The COVID-19 pandemic has exposed a world of fragilities and injustice. It must be an inflection point for bold and transformative action.

For the first time in a generation, poverty and hunger are on the rise. Inequalities are increasing. A surge of mistrust and misinformation is polarizing people and paralyzing societies. Geopolitical divisions disrupt international cooperation. Human rights are under assault. And we continue to careen toward climate catastrophe.

But we can turn things around.

We have the blueprints: the 2030 Agenda and its 17 Sustainable Development Goals.

Humanity has shown time and again that we are capable of great things when we work together – beyond governments and across geographies and generations.

To do so, we need a more inclusive and networked multilateralism. That is why the United Nations has launched a new initiative: Our Common Agenda. It includes more than 90 recommendations and proposals, based on a 360-degree analysis of the state of our world.

A central element is ensuring young people fully participate in designing our shared future and have a much stronger influence in the United Nations itself.

The world needs your energy, courage and commitment. I draw hope from seeing your generation challenge the status quo and call for transformative change.

The United Nations is your steadfast ally as we strive to build a sustainable, inclusive and resilient world for all.

I wish you every success.

THE 2022 NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

New York City, 3–7 and 10–14 April

Dear Delegates, Faculty Advisors, Guests, and Friends,

We cannot begin to express our excitement and the honor we feel to be the first to welcome you back to New York City for the 2022 National Model United Nations Conference. Over the next two weeks, you will have the opportunity to network and collaborate with thousands of students from all around the globe to solve pressing issues facing our world. We encourage you to debate, write resolutions, and challenge yourself and others but, most importantly, embody the diplomatic spirit of cooperation through which our conference thrives.

The last couple of years have been difficult for everyone. When COVID-19 began to spread, few could fathom that we might still today be dealing with the fallout of the pandemic and the unprecedented challenges that nations, businesses, and individuals have faced. The positive response to NMUN•NY 2021 as a virtual conference proved that despite everything, universities, educators, and students desire this forum for growth, camaraderie, and the promotion of a more unified world. With this realization, it became even more apparent that we had to do everything within our power to hold the conference in person.

The theme for NMUN•NY 2022 is “Emerging Resilient, Moving Forward Together.” Both the Secretaries-General and the Deputy Secretaries-General believe this encapsulates our individual and collective strength, resilience, and support for one another as we move forward together towards our common goals. While at the conference, we challenge you to focus on this year’s theme and incorporate it in your solutions for our future.

Now, more than ever, the diplomatic mission of NMUN is needed. As we bring together future leaders, our delegates, we have a unique opportunity to showcase what we can do. United, let us show the world new, innovative, and collaborative ways of facing our collective challenges. There is no doubt that by the end of our conferences, we will be able to forge a new path forward together.

Sincerely,

N. Keller

Here we recognize those institutions attending this year for which participation is a school tradition. The long-term support of these schools reflects the hard work and dedication of faculty advisors, students, and administrators. It shows commitment to experiential learning opportunities like NMUN as well as the ideals embodied by the United Nations. We are greatly indebted to them for their leadership in continuing to enhance the conference. We look forward to welcoming more schools to this list in the future as new institutions start an NMUN tradition and returning schools continue to build a legacy. Data are taken from registration records, programs, and self-reported on conference applications. Schools without ( ) are located in the U.S.

Expectations of Conduct

Our intention is to create an environment at National Model United Nations (NMUN) that supports our educational mission. Professionalism in speech, actions, and appearance by all participants (delegates, head delegates, faculty, delegation leaders, guests, secretariat, staff, and board members) is a requirement of all NMUN conferences. These guidelines are provided to help establish clear expectations.

Concerns about individual behavior in committee should first be addressed to the volunteer staff in committee. Larger concerns, such as violence, sexual harassment, or discrimination issues, may be referred to conference organizers. Organizers may also be contacted directly through information services volunteer staff.

NMUN reserves the right to bar violators from further participation and/or restrict future registration for any participant or school unable to uphold their responsibility to the conference's expectations.

Everyone

- Treat everyone, including non-NMUN hotel guests, with the highest level of courtesy and respect at all times, including on social media and in electronic communications.
- Enjoy the variety of activities available at our conference venues. Please bear in mind, however, that the purpose of being here is participation in NMUN.
- Disruption of committee sessions or causing problems in the hotel or other facilities will not be tolerated.
- Respect academic integrity; plagiarism will not be tolerated.
- Alcohol is not allowed in any of our committee sessions. If you are going to drink, please drink responsibly. Excessive alcohol consumption should be avoided. The U.S. legal drinking age is 21.
- Possession or use of illicit drugs is prohibited at all times. Any issues related to illicit drugs may be directed to the attention of local authorities.
- Follow the Dress Code while attending conference events.
- Respect the property of the United Nations, our host hotels, and any other facilities used. Keep in mind that our facility partners have separate policies that include the potential for removal from their properties.

Delegates

- Remain in character by consistently advocating the interests and representing the policies of the country assigned. To act in character also entails displaying respect for the opinions and ideas of fellow delegates, even if these opinions and ideas conflict with a given delegate's own country's priorities.
- Collaborate with fellow delegates whenever possible.

Head Delegates

- If assigned to a committee, follow the delegates expectations. If serving solely in an advisory role, follow the faculty expectations.
- Attend and participate in head delegates meetings.

Faculty Advisors

- Make efforts to ensure that students maintain a positive and professional approach to the conference and help them understand the skills of diplomacy as practiced at NMUN.
- Serve as information resources when appropriate, but do not participate in the actual writing of resolutions or caucusing activities; participation in the committee process must be left to the student delegates and the conference volunteer staff.
- Quietly observe your students from the back of committee rooms.
- Refrain from using academic credit and grading policies that force participation beyond a country's normal position in the UN; awards should not be a delegation's main emphasis.
- Attend and participate in any faculty advisors meetings.

Guests

- Guests are required to adhere to the same expectations as all other conference attendees.
- Guests serve as observers.
- Guests may not be enrolled university students or faculty advisors and do not provide any support to a delegation. A guest is typically a school official, spouse/partner/child of a faculty advisor, or a funder who is interested in learning about NMUN.

Dress Code

All clothing must portray professionalism as expected in diplomatic settings. If attire is deemed inappropriate by NMUN staff, individuals may be asked to leave the session and return with appropriate attire.

- Professional business attire is a business jacket, dress shirt, tie, slacks/skirt/dress, and dress shoes. Professional dress expectations require that dresses and skirts be knee length. Delegates should be dressed in professional business attire that reflects their self-identified gender.
- Clothing considered too casual includes sweaters, novelty jackets, shorts, sundresses/other casual dresses, ball caps, jeans, sneakers, athletic wear, and sunglasses. Clothing that exposes excessive bare skin, shows undergarments, or is otherwise revealing is inappropriate.
- It is not appropriate to display any school or national symbols such as flags, pins, crests, etc. on your person during sessions. All UN symbols are acceptable.
- Traditional dress is permitted only for delegations in whose home countries it is considered professional business dress. NMUN will not tolerate any attempt to portray a character using traditional cultural attire as a costume.
- Masks must be worn at all times when in the committee space.

Faculty advisors, delegation leaders, guests, and volunteer staff serve as role models for delegates. They too are required to dress in professional business attire while participating in scheduled conference sessions.

Sexual Harassment & Discrimination

Sexual harassment or discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age, or disability is not acceptable. Such acts are incompatible with NMUN's educational mission and are a violation of our Conduct Expectations. Violators may be expelled from the conference without compensation. General descriptions of behavior that may be considered sexual harassment can be found in the UN's Code of Conduct.

Anyone who believes they have seen or encountered sexual harassment or discrimination should bring it to NMUN's attention. We will investigate the merits of the allegations and respond appropriately. Outcomes may include taking no action, issuing a verbal reprimand, separating individuals from the conference, or any other action deemed appropriate.

Safety & Security

Your safety and security are your personal responsibility. Take full advantage of this unique opportunity in a responsible manner. Please do not leave your computer or other personal electronic devices unattended. Remove conference badges when leaving the hotel. Refrain from any sort of substance abuse. Use common sense.

In the event of an emergency in the hotel or UN, follow their guidelines. Emergency preparedness experts recommend having a designated meeting spot outside the hotel and sharing cell phone numbers amongst members of your delegation.

Awards Criteria

National Model United Nations (NMUN) has established criteria to evaluate delegate performance. Each element is equally important to the overall awards determination process. All committees are weighted equally, and delegations are rated on a mathematical formula in relation to the total number of committees represented by the individual member state. Areas of evaluation are:

- Remaining in character—advocate for your assigned country's position in a manner consistent with its economic, social, and geopolitical constraints.
- Participating in committee —during both formal sessions and informal caucuses.
- Using the NMUN Rules of Procedure properly—facilitate effective workings of the committee and debate; do not impede it.

More details at nmun.org/awards-criteria.html.

About Us

NMUN began in 1927 as a Model League of Nations. Our UN simulation started with the General Assembly and then expanded and transitioned to include other organs. Originally, attendees were from U.S. mid-Atlantic colleges and universities who rotated hosting duties on their campuses. Eventually, it expanded to attendees from all over the world and has been held annually in New York City since 1964. Throughout its history, the conference has offered an experience-based educational program that furthers the understanding of contemporary international problems. Our Mission & History page includes more details.

Today, NMUN•NY is the world’s largest intercollegiate Model UN simulation. The 2022 New York conference will bring together thousands of delegates from five continents, finally able to meet together in New York City. This conference includes 21 committees. NMUN offers a unique opportunity for students to better understand the inner workings of the United Nations while building skills in diplomacy and compromise. College and university students from all over the world work feverishly to propose resolutions addressing regional conflicts, peacekeeping, human rights, women and children, economic and social development, and the environment.

NMUN conferences are one of the most effective tools for teaching students the dynamics of multilateral diplomacy and international relations. They provide a diverse group of informed participants a forum in which to discuss global concerns in a context that closely parallels the real world.

NMUN plans to hold upcoming conferences in New York City; Washington, DC; Kobe, Japan; and Erfurt, Germany. Since 2008, international simulations have been held in China, Ecuador, the Czech Republic, France, Germany, the Republic of Korea, Italy, Japan, and Canada. Thank you to our partner organizations for their vision and support of our mission. We look forward to future conference partnerships and welcome your inquiry into potential opportunities.

NMUN is a U.S. 501(c)(3) nonprofit, educational organization; and a nongovernmental organization formally associated with the United Nations Department of Global Communications.

"Peace makes demands of us. Because peace is not a passive acceptance of the status quo. It is a concrete act; a choice; and sometimes, yes, a difficult one. But in our fractured, troubled world, it is a vital one. It is the only one."

Judy K. Eaton Service Award

This service award was established in 2021 by the NMUN Board of Directors. It was named in memory of Judy K. Eaton, our longest serving volunteer (20 years). She passed away in December 2020. She cherished her role at the conference and happily worked behind the scenes preparing registration packets and checking in on faculty, staff, and delegates during the week – making her rounds as Ambassador Mom. The award intends to recognize others who have demonstrated exceptional commitment to the conference over time. We are proud to acknowledge the first recipients:

2021: For their combined 50 years of service to NMUN:
Prof. Carol M. Glen, Valdosta State University
Prof. Richard Murgo, Tallahassee Community College and NMUN Board

UNITING NATIONS

As a United Nations Peacekeeping Operations Intern, Morgan analyzed issues related to child protection, HIV/AIDS, gender, conflict and peacekeeping reform. She represented the student voice at high-level forums, events and briefings while serving as a UN Youth Representative.

Morgan didn't wait until after graduation to start working to unite nations, and at Seton Hall you won't have to either.

Morgan McMichen, M.A., addresses the President of the UN General Assembly at Seton Hall.
