NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

nmun.org

Conference A: 2–6 April
Conference B: 10–14 April

NMUN Mission: To advance understanding of the UN and contemporary global issues through quality educational programs that emphasize collaboration and cooperative conflict resolution and prepare participants for active global citizenship.

Learning Outcomes: National Model United Nations (NMUN) allows delegates to apply theoretical knowledge of international relations and of the United Nations system in a practical, hands-on setting. Through preparation and participation, students will develop transferable skills such as leadership, negotiation, collaboration, public speaking, researching, and technical writing; advance a responsibility to be actively involved in global issues; and enhance their understanding of the structure of the international system and challenges of global diplomacy.

Join the NMUN Volunteer Team!

We seek enthusiastic NMUN conference alumni from around the globe who are willing to help organize the world's largest university-level simulation of the United Nations. Many of our volunteer staff members are current undergraduate or graduate students.

Volunteers with expertise in research, committee management, computer programming skills, and conference organization are needed.

Build skills in facilitation of debate, conflict resolution, and customer service. Learn about current global issues while working alongside delegates. Form lifelong friendships with other volunteers from throughout the world.

We offer in-depth training, provide hotel accommodations, and help pay for most travel expenses.

MESSAGE FOR THE NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS CONFERENCE • NEW YORK (NMUN•NY)

New York, 2-6 April and 10-14 April 2023

Thank you for taking part in this Model United Nations conference and for believing in the power of global cooperation to solve global problems.

We need your engagement and ideas today more than ever.

Conflict, poverty, hunger, and inequalities are on the rise.

A surge of mistrust and misinformation is polarizing people and paralyzing societies.

Human rights are under assault.

And the triple planetary crisis – climate disruption, pollution, and catastrophic biodiversity loss – is threatening lives and livelihoods everywhere.

But we can turn things around.

Humanity has shown time and again that we are capable of great things when we work together –across geographies and generations.

To do so, we need an inclusive and networked multilateralism – one that ensures young people have a seat and a say in shaping our common future.

We need your creativity, courage, and commitment.

I draw hope from seeing your generation challenge the status quo and call for transformative change.

The United Nations is your steadfast ally in striving to build a more just, sustainable, inclusive, and peaceful world for all.

Thank you.

* ECA and UNDP are being simulated at Conf. A only.

Dear Delegates, Faculty Advisors, Guests, and Friends,

It is with great honor that we welcome you to the 2023 National Model United Nations New York (NMUN•NY) Conference! Over the past year, the NMUN Secretariat has worked tirelessly in preparing for the arrival of almost four thousand delegates from universities around the globe to simulate one of the world’s most vital diplomatic instruments. Delegates will debate pressing current issues, utilize negotiation and public speaking skills, gain new perspectives, and draft creative, solutions-based resolutions, all while embodying the spirit of diplomacy.

The theme of this year’s conference is Radical Empathy, Peace Reimagined. This timely theme reflects the crossroads at which the world finds itself on a plethora of matters. In August, UN Secretary-General António Guterres, in his opening remarks at the Tenth Review Conference of the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty, stated that humanity is “just one misunderstanding, one miscalculation away from nuclear annihilation.” The humanitarian toll of war in many regions of the world weighs heavily on our hearts, as well as the significant loss of human life and catastrophic destruction the earthquake has brought upon Türkiye and Syria. Furthermore, the rapidly shifting climate, and the significantly disproportionate impact its effects have on vulnerable communities alarms us, especially as UN experts warn that climate change is collectively humanity’s greatest modern threat.

Despite the backdrop of these monumental problems that indiscriminately affect many communities and respect no political borders, the world remains as polarized as ever. It is our hope that as young leaders converge in New York this spring, they are reminded of the imperative need for empathy and finding of common ground as they seek to understand and answer the problems the international community faces. We invite delegates to challenge the status quo and traditional styles of thinking when crafting unique, reimagined solutions to these problems for a lasting peace.

Respectfully,

Ismail Dogar

He was Director of the Virginia and Douglass Adair Symposia, has 17 published books and numerous articles, and served two Fulbright assignments. At Cal Poly, he received the Distinguished Teacher, Outstanding International Scholar, Outstanding Advisor, and the George P. Hart Leadership awards, and a Lifetime Achievement award from UNA. He and Jerry Pubantz received the Outstanding Academic Title commendation from Choice Magazine for their first of eight books, To Create a New World? American Presidents and the UN. Jerry Pubantz is Professor of Political Science at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro and founding dean of the university's Lloyd International Honors College. He holds degrees from Duke University and the School of Foreign Service at Georgetown University. He is the co-author or editor of nine books on the UN, including U.S. Presidents and the UN: Internationalism in the Balance and the third edition of The New United Nations: International Organization in the Twenty-first Century for Routledge Press. His other writings include works on the Middle East, American foreign policy, and human rights. His articles have appeared in the International Encyclopedia of Political Science, ArabiesTrends, and the Turkish Journal of International Relations among other periodicals. He served as a faculty advisor to NMUN delegations for 30 years. He is the former President of the North Carolina Political Science Association.

Awards Criteria

National Model United Nations (NMUN) has established criteria to evaluate delegate performance. Each element is equally important to the overall awards determination process. All committees are weighted equally, and delegations are rated on a mathematical formula in relation to the total number of committees represented by the individual member state. Areas of evaluation are:

- Remaining in character — advocate for your assigned country's position in a manner consistent with its economic, social, and geopolitical constraints.
- Participating in committee — during both formal sessions and informal caucuses.
- Using the NMUN Rules of Procedure properly — facilitate effective workings of the committee and debate; do not impede it.

Visit our Awards Criteria page.

Here we recognize those institutions attending this year for which participation is a school tradition. The long-term support of these schools reflects the hard work and dedication of faculty advisors, students, and administrators. It shows commitment to experiential learning opportunities like NMUN as well as the ideals embodied by the United Nations. We are greatly indebted to them for their leadership in continuing to enhance the conference. We look forward to welcoming more schools to this list in the future as new institutions start an NMUN tradition and returning schools continue to build a legacy. Data are taken from registration records, programs, and self-reported on conference applications. Schools without ( ) are located in the U.S.

Judy K. Eaton Service Award

This service award was established in 2021 by the NMUN Board of Directors. Named in memory of Judy Eaton, our longest serving volunteer (20 years), who passed away in December 2020. She cherished her role at the conference and happily worked behind the scenes preparing registration packets and checking in on faculty, staff, and delegates during the week – making her rounds as Ambassador Mom. The award intends to recognize others who have demonstrated exceptional commitment to the conference over time.

- 2021: Prof. Carol M. Glen, Valdosta State University
Prof. Richard Murgo, Tallahassee Community College
- 2022: Prof. Francine J. D'Amico, Syracuse University, Maxwell School
- 2023: Prof. Lori Zenuk-Nishide, Kobe City University of Foreign Studies

Expectations of Conduct

Our intention is to create an environment at National Model United Nations (NMUN) that supports our educational mission. Professionalism in speech, actions, and appearance by all participants (delegates, head delegates, faculty, delegation leaders, guests, secretariat, staff, and board members) is a requirement of all NMUN conferences. These guidelines are provided to help establish clear expectations.

Disrespectful behaviors in committee should first be addressed by attendees directly with one another or through their faculty advisor or head delegate. Repeated instances of undiplomatic behavior may be called to the attention of organizers by faculty advisors or head delegates through Information Services. Larger concerns, such as sexual harassment or discrimination issues, may be referred to conference organizers. Any instances of sexual violence should minimally be referred to conference organizers. Organizers may be contacted through volunteer staff in committee or directly through Information Services.

NMUN reserves the right to bar violators from further participation and/or restrict future registration for any participant or school unable to uphold their responsibility to the conference's expectations.

Everyone

- Treat everyone, including non-NMUN hotel guests, with the highest level of courtesy and respect at all times, including on social media and in electronic communications.
- Enjoy the variety of activities available at our conference venues. Please bear in mind, however, that the purpose of being here is participation in NMUN.
- Disruption of committee sessions or causing problems in the hotel or other facilities will not be tolerated.
- Respect academic integrity; plagiarism will not be tolerated.
- Alcohol is not allowed in any of our committee sessions. If you are going to drink, please drink responsibly. Excessive alcohol consumption should be avoided. The U.S. legal drinking age is 21.
- Possession or use of illicit drugs is prohibited at all times. Any issues related to illicit drugs may be directed to the attention of local authorities.
- Follow the Dress Code while attending conference events.

- Respect the property of the United Nations, our host hotels, and any other facilities used. Keep in mind that our facility partners have separate policies that include the potential for removal from their properties.

Delegates

- Remain in character by consistently advocating the interests and representing the policies of the country assigned. To act in character also entails displaying respect for the opinions and ideas of fellow delegates, even if these opinions and ideas conflict with a given delegate's own country's priorities.
- Collaborate with fellow delegates whenever possible.

Head Delegates

- If assigned to a committee, follow the delegates expectations. If serving solely in an advisory role, follow the faculty expectations.
- Attend and participate in any head delegates meetings.

Faculty Advisors

- Make efforts to ensure that students maintain a positive and professional approach to the conference and help them understand the skills of diplomacy as practiced at NMUN.
- Serve as information resources when appropriate, but do not participate in the actual writing of resolutions or caucusing activities; participation in the committee process must be left to the student delegates and the conference volunteer staff.
- Quietly observe your students from the back of committee rooms.
- Refrain from using academic credit and grading policies that force participation beyond a country's normal position in the UN; awards should not be a delegation's main emphasis.
- Attend and participate in any faculty advisors meetings.

Guests

- Guests are required to adhere to the same expectations as all other conference attendees.
- Guests serve as observers.
- Guests may not be enrolled university students or faculty advisors and do not provide any support to a delegation. A guest is typically a school official, spouse/partner/child of a faculty advisor, or a funder who is interested in learning about NMUN.

Dress Code

All clothing must portray professionalism as expected in diplomatic settings. If attire is deemed inappropriate by NMUN staff, individuals may be asked to leave the session and return with appropriate attire.

- Professional business attire is a business jacket, dress shirt, tie, slacks/skirt/dress, and dress shoes. Professional dress expectations require that dresses and skirts be knee length. Delegates should be dressed in professional business attire that reflects their self-identified gender.
- Clothing considered too casual includes sweaters, novelty jackets, shorts, sundresses/other casual dresses, ball caps, jeans, sneakers, athletic wear, and sunglasses. Clothing that exposes excessive bare skin, shows undergarments, or is otherwise revealing is inappropriate.
- It is not appropriate to display any school or national symbols such as flags, pins, crests, etc. on your person during sessions. All UN symbols are acceptable.
- Traditional dress is permitted only for delegations in whose home countries it is considered professional business dress. NMUN will not tolerate any attempt to portray a character using traditional cultural attire as a costume.

Faculty advisors, delegation leaders, guests, and volunteer staff serve as role models for delegates. They too are required to dress in professional business attire while participating in scheduled conference sessions.

Safety & Security

Your safety and security are your personal responsibility. Take full advantage of this unique opportunity in a responsible manner. Please do not leave your computer or other personal electronic devices unattended. Remove conference badges when leaving the hotel. Refrain from any sort of substance abuse. Use common sense.

In the event of an emergency in the hotel or UN, follow their guidelines. Emergency preparedness experts recommend having a designated meeting spot outside the hotel and sharing cell phone numbers amongst members of your delegation.

Undiplomatic Behavior, Sexual Harassment, Discrimination, and Sexual Violence

Disrespectful behaviors in committee should first be addressed by attendees directly with one another or through their faculty advisor or head delegate. Repeated instances of undiplomatic behavior may be called to the attention of organizers by faculty advisors or head delegates through Information Services.

Sexual harassment and discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age, or disability are not acceptable. Such acts are incompatible with NMUN's educational mission and are a violation of our Conduct Expectations. General descriptions of behavior that may be considered sexual harassment can be found in the UN's Code of Conduct.

Anyone who believes they have seen or encountered sexual harassment or discrimination should bring it to NMUN's attention. We will investigate the merits of the allegations and respond appropriately. Outcomes may include issuing a verbal reprimand, expelling violators from the conference without compensation, barring violators from future NMUN involvement, or any other action deemed appropriate.

Sexual violence, which includes rape and sexual assault, is a crime in the U.S. punishable under the criminal justice system. Anyone who believes they are the victim of sexual violence, or have witnessed actual or attempted sexual violence should, in the U.S., contact law enforcement by calling 9-1-1 and notify NMUN. We will notify the appropriate authorities, if not already contacted. To ensure the safety of all NMUN participants, we will immediately remove potential violators from the conference and may take further action. We encourage all participants to review their campus sexual violence handbook for further information on sexual violence and resources available for victims.

About Us

NMUN began in 1927 as a Model League of Nations. Our UN simulation started with the General Assembly and then expanded and transitioned to include other organs. Originally, attendees were from U.S. mid-Atlantic colleges and universities who rotated hosting duties on their campuses. Eventually, it expanded to colleges and universities from all over the world and has been held annually in New York City since 1964. Throughout its history, the conference has offered an experience-based educational program that furthers the understanding of contemporary international problems. Visit our Mission & History page for more details.

Today, NMUN•NY is the world’s largest intercollegiate Model UN simulation. The 2023 New York conference will bring together thousands of delegates from six continents. This conference will simulate 16 committees at Conf. A and 14 at Conf. B. NMUN offers a unique opportunity for students to better understand the inner workings of the United Nations while building skills in diplomacy and compromise. College and university students from all over the world work feverishly to propose resolutions addressing regional conflicts, peacekeeping, human rights, women and children, economic and social development, and the environment.

NMUN conferences are one of the most effective tools for teaching students the dynamics of multilateral diplomacy and international relations. They provide a diverse group of informed participants a forum in which to discuss global concerns in a context that closely parallels the real world.

NMUN plans to hold upcoming conferences in New York City; Washington, D.C.; and Erfurt, Germany. Since 2008, international simulations have been held in China, Ecuador, the Czech Republic, France, Germany, the Republic of Korea, Italy, Japan, and Canada. Thank you to our partner organizations for their vision and support of our mission. We look forward to future conference partnerships and welcome your inquiry into potential opportunities.

NMUN is a U.S. 501(c)(3) nonprofit, educational organization; and a nongovernmental organization formally associated with the United Nations Department of Global Communications.

Friends and family of Ismail Dogar, in particular my parents Jahangeer and Nuzhat, my siblings Hajira and Ibraheem, and my model UN professor Dr. Joel Ostrow. Additionally, to my NMUN family, especially Natalie Keller, Moritz Mueller, Dieyun Song, Philipp Shroeder, and Mihai Cioc. Thank you all for your unwavering friendship, mentorship, support, and patience on this journey.

Friends and family of Tobias Dietrich, especially my partner Maria, my parents Gerti and Günter and my sister Johanna as well as so many more who have been part of my Model UN journey. Thank you for all your support and mentorship.

Friends and family of Lauren Kiser, in particular my husband Hunter, our dogs Pupper and Chewy, my parents Cara and Chris, my sister Emily, my Model UN advisor, Dr. Eric Cox, and to those who have championed, challenged, and encouraged me on this amazing NMUN journey, especially Max Jungmann, Alfie Vinten, and Estefani Morales Zanoletti. Thank you for never letting me settle.

Friends and family of Maxwell Lacey, especially my partner Bethany, my parents Karen and Paul, and those who have guided me along the way, in particular Alfie Vinten, Max Jungmann and, the person who inspired me to reach for this position, Andrea Wong.

"At this time of peril, let us take inspiration and stand together as one human family. Rich in diversity, equal in dignity and rights, united in solidarity. Let's all do our part."

CHOOSE A CAREER THAT WILL MAKE AN IMPACT

Join renowned practitioners in the field to contribute to conflict prevention and peacebuilding.

Professor David Wood ventures into the world's most dangerous settings to help transform conflict and build peace. His visionary fieldwork with Seton Hall University alumni and students changes lives and strengthens communities in Yemen, Syria, and Libya, among other places. Leading the School of Diplomacy and International Relations Center for Peace and Conflict Studies Middle East and North Africa program, Professor Wood empowers students to find new ways to approach peacebuilding. The Center has become a creative hub that merges cutting-edge academic research, educational programs and practical initiatives that reduce violence, and build more peaceful societies. Whether inside the classroom or in the field, Professor Wood and his students and alumni are creating a world that is safer and more equitable.

David Wood is part of a dynamic, close-knit international community that inspires students to apply what they're learning to address the world's most complex issues.
