
NEW YORK CITY | getting around

The conference format affords participants the opportunity to meet students and faculty from around the world and diplomats and other professionals from within the UN and the international community. In addition, our New York City location offers students and faculty access to some of the world's most acclaimed museums and galleries, libraries, restaurants, shows, nightlife, and shops.

Most conference sessions will be held at the conference host hotels (Sheraton New York and Marriott Marquis Hotel). Both are located in New York's acclaimed Times Square area, surrounded by major media and business headquarters. Many of America's largest corporations maintain offices in the skyscrapers around the hotel.

CRIME AND NY:

The past several years have seen a drastic reduction in crime throughout the city. Nevertheless, participants are warned to remain vigilant when leaving the conference confines. Even when walking near the hotel, you should remove your conference badges and travel in groups. The NMUN staff asks that you use your head as much outside of your committees as you will inside them. (For additional safety tips, see page 50 of this program.)
