Notes: NEW in 2011, GA Plenary will not meet during the week with its own agenda. It will only meet the last day to consider resolutions and reports from appropriate committees. The order for debate will be posted the night before at NMUN. Delegations may choose who is present – likely head delegates or the delegates originally present in the committee discussion. We hope to again use UN facilities for final sessions; it is possible space may be limited due to renovations.

WIPO and G-20 committees write reports rather than pass resolutions; ICJ passes judgments – See Background Guides. All other committees write resolutions.

Because of high interest, NMUN-NY simulates two Security Councils. One is comprised of schools assigned to the member states on the council (see matrix). The additional council (SC2) is by separate application. A school assigned to Security Council 2 will be a different country in the rest of the simulation.
