THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

MESSAGE TO NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS • GERMANY
(NMUN • GERMANY) 2019 CONFERENCE

Germany: 24 November-1 December 2019

Thank you for taking part in the Model United Nations and for getting involved in some of the biggest issues of our time: peace, climate action, sustainable development and human rights.

Our world has achieved remarkable progress in recent years, from increasing life expectancy to reducing child mortality. In the span of just one generation, the number of people living in extreme poverty has been reduced by more than a billion.

But these gains face big risks. Climate change is an existential threat and the defining challenge of our time. You are the first generation to grow up in the shadow of climate change and the last who can prevent its worst consequences. The world needs your strong engagement to increase ambition, to cut emissions and to hold leaders to account.

The United Nations is the platform for action on climate change, on growing inequality, on harnessing new technologies for the good of all, and on all global issues that cannot be addressed by any one country alone. Our blueprint is the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development – the globally-agreed plan for dignity, peace and prosperity on a healthy planet.

To achieve the 17 Sustainable Development Goals, we need a great global mobilization that goes beyond governments, bringing people together from all walks of life and showing that international cooperation can deliver for everyone. The voices of women and girls, and of young people, are essential.

That is why the Model United Nations is so important. Thank you for getting involved, and for standing up for the shared values of all humanity.

I hope you will take what you learn here into your lives, to your family and friends and to the wider world. The United Nations counts on you to be agents of change as we strive to build a better future for all.

2019 NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS • GERMANY

Erfurt, Germany • 24 November - 1 December

Dear Delegates, Faculty Members, Guests, and Friends,

On behalf of the entire NMUN • Germany team, the University of Erfurt, the Association of University of Erfurt, and the National Model United Nations Board, I am delighted to welcome you to my beautiful hometown Erfurt.

It is our greatest honor to host this NMUN conference for the first time in Germany. 2019 is a special year for us, as the University of Erfurt celebrates its 640th and its 25th anniversary at the same time. Our university's history goes back to the year 1379, when the University of Erfurt was first established. After its closure in the early 19th century, the university was re-established in 1994. It so happens that the University of Erfurt is simultaneously one of the oldest and one of the youngest universities in Germany.

Additionally, 2019 marks the 30th anniversary of the end of the Cold War and the fall of the Berlin Wall. The past 30 years showed that it is possible to tear down walls, to overcome differences and to literally and figuratively build bridges. Today, Germany is a valued international actor that advocates for multilateral approaches, open dialogue and rules-based order. During the conference, I encourage you to keep these values in mind to create a feeling of togetherness. We truly believe that learning from the past – from moments of crisis and times of harmony – is crucial for shaping our future. In this spirit, we are excited to travel through time with you as part of our cultural tours. Amongst others, we will be tracing the steps of Martin Luther at Wartburg Castle, facing the atrocities of the Nazi regime at the Buchenwald Memorial, and feeling the atmosphere of the Cold War at Point Alpha Memorial.

During the conference, I hope you will take the time to experience our lovely city and to discover the many unique places and sights of Erfurt. Enjoy our Christmas markets, which are considered amongst the most impressive Christmas markets in Germany. Be inspired by the multifaceted history of our city, which you will experience in several themed city tours.

I would like to express my deepest gratitude to everyone who contributed to this conference. Without their hard work and dedication, NMUN • Germany would not be possible. Finally, I would like to thank you, dear participants, for coming all the way to Erfurt and for joining us in our wish to create a better future by enhancing international cooperation and understanding.

Enjoy your stay in our beautiful city and keep in mind that NMUN allows for challenging debates just as much as it fosters new friendships and the gathering of lasting memories!

Cheers,

Johanna Günkel
Secretary-General, NMUN • Germany 2019

Association of the University of Erfurt

The University of Erfurt is considered to be the oldest and youngest university of Germany. At first, this may seem like a paradoxical advertisement, but it is in fact testimony to the long and changing history of the higher education institution. Founded in 1379, the University of Erfurt is in fact older than the University of Heidelberg (1385) and the University of Cologne (1388). At the same time, however, the University of Erfurt is considered the youngest university in Germany with its more recent (re)opening in 1994. Since transitioning from its medieval educational system, where Martin Luther first began his studies, into the more recent reform project, there were various obstacles for the university, including its eventual closing in 1816. The university's memory, however, was the 1950s, academia with the founding of theological study pedagogical higher academy for medicine. Erfurt, thus, bridges tradition with the present. reputation and always kept alive. In was revived in Erfurt the philosophical-program, the institution, and the The University of both century-long vividness of the exemplifies this with as the Collegium of Erfurt and the modern buildings on the university campus. The interconnectedness of the past and the present is also visible in the Engelsburg, which is amplified by its importance for the Humanism Group of Erfurt (Erfurter Humanistenkreises). Finally, the University of Erfurt is a true cornerstone of civil society. Its original founding was strongly supported by the medieval town council and its reopening was largely due to the support of the Association of the University of Erfurt. The latter was founded as a civil society movement in East Germany in 1987 and was not only a strong advocate for the university's reopening, but also helped influence the peaceful revolution in East Germany.

Expectations of Conduct

Our intention is to create an environment at National Model United Nations (NMUN) that supports our educational mission. Professionalism in speech, actions, and appearance by all participants (delegates, head delegates, faculty, delegation leaders, guests, secretariat, staff, and board members) is a requirement of all NMUN conferences. These guidelines are provided to help establish clear expectations.

Concerns about individual behavior in committee should first be addressed to the volunteer staff in committee. Larger concerns, such as violence, sexual harassment, or discrimination issues, may be referred to conference organizers. Organizers may also be contacted directly through information services volunteer staff.

NMUN reserves the right to bar violators from further participation and/or restrict future registration for any participant or school unable to uphold their responsibility to the conference's expectations.

Everyone

- Treat everyone, including non-NMUN hotel guests, with the highest level of courtesy and respect at all times, including on social media and in electronic communications.
- Enjoy the variety of activities available at our conference venues. Please bear in mind, however, that the purpose of being here is participation in NMUN.
- Disruption of committee sessions or causing problems in the hotel or other facilities will not be tolerated.
- Respect academic integrity; plagiarism will not be tolerated.
- Alcohol is not allowed in any of our committee sessions. If you are going to drink, please drink responsibly. Excessive alcohol consumption should be avoided. The legal drinking age in Germany is 18.
- Possession or use of illicit drugs is prohibited at all times. Any issues related to illicit drugs may be directed to the attention of local authorities.
- Follow the Dress Code while attending conference events.
- Respect the property of our host hotels and all other facilities used. Keep in mind that our facility partners have separate policies that include the potential for removal from their properties.

Delegates

- Remain in character by consistently advocating the interests and representing the policies of the country assigned. To act in character also entails displaying respect for the opinions and ideas of fellow delegates, even if these opinions and ideas conflict with a given delegate's own country's priorities.
- Collaborate with fellow delegates whenever possible.

Head Delegates

- If assigned to a committee, follow the delegates expectations. If serving solely in an advisory role, follow the faculty expectations.
- Attend and participate in head delegates meetings.

Faculty Advisors

- Make efforts to ensure that students maintain a positive and professional approach to the conference and help them understand the skills of diplomacy as practiced at NMUN.
- Serve as information resources when appropriate, but do not participate in the actual writing of resolutions or caucusing activities; participation in the committee process must be left to the student delegates and the conference volunteer staff.
- Quietly observe your students from the back of committee rooms.
- Refrain from using academic credit and grading policies that force participation beyond a country's normal position in the UN; awards should not be a delegation's main emphasis.
- Attend and participate in any faculty advisors meetings.

Guests

- Guests are required to adhere to the same expectations as all other conference attendees.
- Guests serve as observers.
- Guests may not be enrolled university students or faculty advisors and do not provide any support to a delegation. A guest is typically a school official, spouse/partner of a faculty advisor, or a funder who is interested in learning about NMUN.

Sexual Harassment & Discrimination

Sexual harassment or discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age, or disability is not acceptable. Such acts are incompatible with NMUN's educational mission and are a violation of our Conduct Expectations. Violators may be expelled from the conference without compensation. General descriptions of behavior that may be considered sexual harassment can be found at: <https://sapac.umich.edu/article/63>.

Anyone who believes they have seen or encountered sexual harassment or discrimination should bring it to NMUN's attention. We will investigate the merits of the allegations and respond appropriately. Outcomes may include taking no action, issuing a verbal reprimand, separating individuals from the conference, or any other action deemed appropriate.

Safety & Security

Your safety and security are your personal responsibility. Take full advantage of this unique opportunity in a responsible manner. Please do not leave your computer or other personal electronic devices unattended. Remove conference badges when leaving the hotel. Refrain from any sort of substance abuse. Use common sense.

In the event of an emergency in the hotel or committees, follow the building guidelines. Emergency preparedness experts recommend having a designated meeting spot outside the hotel and sharing cell phone numbers amongst members of your delegation.

Dress Code

All clothing must portray professionalism as expected in diplomatic settings. If attire is deemed inappropriate by NMUN staff, individuals may be asked to leave the session and return with appropriate attire.

- Professional business attire is a business jacket, dress shirt, tie, slacks/skirt/dress, and dress shoes. Professional dress expectations require that dresses and skirts be knee length. Delegates should be dressed in professional business attire that reflects their self-identified gender.
- Clothing considered too casual includes sweaters, novelty jackets, shorts, sundresses/other casual dresses, ball caps, jeans, sneakers, athletic wear, and sunglasses. Clothing that exposes excessive bare skin, shows undergarments, or is otherwise revealing is inappropriate.
- It is not appropriate to display any national symbols such as flags, pins, crests, etc. on your person during sessions. All UN symbols are acceptable.
- Traditional dress is permitted only for delegations in whose home countries it is considered professional business dress. NMUN will not tolerate any attempt to portray a character using traditional cultural attire as a costume.

Faculty advisors, delegation leaders, guests, and volunteer staff serve as role models for delegates. They too are required to dress in professional business attire while participating in scheduled conference sessions.

Awards Criteria

National Model United Nations has established criteria for evaluating delegate performance. Each element is equally important to the overall awards determination process. All committees are weighted equally, and delegations are rated on a mathematical formula in relation to the total number of committees represented by the individual Member State.

Areas of evaluation are:

- Remaining in character - defined as advocating your assigned country's position in a manner consistent with economic, social and geopolitical constraints.
- Participating in committee - evaluated both during formal sessions and caucusing.
- Proper use of the rules of procedure - NMUN uses the rules of procedure to facilitate effective workings of committee and debate.

Join the team of the DGVN !

UN in the classroom is a project of the United Nations Association of Germany (DGVN) in which students are introduced to the work and goals of the United Nations in a playful manner via simulation games. In various modules, they can get to know the working methods of the UN and slip into the role of a diplomat. The modules are accompanied by trained team members of the DGVN, most of whom are studying or undergoing vocational training. They share an interest in politics and the United Nations and want to impart their knowledge and enthusiasm to the next generation. The DGVN prepares the teamer for these tasks in a training course and provides all necessary materials. In the project we have various job profiles, which is why everyone can become active according to their interests and strengths!

You are interested in the United Nations and would like to gain experience in political education? You want to know more about the project UN in the classroom?

Visit our website <https://dgvn.de/aktivitaeten/un-im-klassenzimmer/> or send your questions to mitteldeutschland@un-klassenzimmer.de.

We look forward to spread your enthusiasm for the UN! Fresh ideas and new suggestions are always welcome!

Regional Association of UNA Germany

The regional association of the United Nations Association of Germany, UNA-Germany (Deutsche Gesellschaft für die Vereinten Nationen – DGVN) is glad to be part of an important project as is NMUN • Germany.

Our regional UNA branch in Saxony, Saxony-Anhalt and Thuringia is a registered, non-profit association that promotes the work of the United Nations and the vision of a peaceful and just world. As such we encourage the engagement and discussion with foreign policy. On behalf of my colleagues, I would like to wish all participants a productive and successful conference and hope you enjoy your time in Erfurt.
