National Model United Nations • New York
29 March - 2 April 2015 (Conf. B)

Documentation of the Work of Security Council A (SCA)
Security Council A (SCA)

Committee Staff

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Director</th>
<th>Angela Shively</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Chair</td>
<td>Spenser Wempe</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Agenda

I. The Situation in Iraq

II. Measures to Combat Terrorism in Africa

III. Maintenance of International Peace and Security: Security Sector Reform

Resolutions / Report Segments adopted by the Committee

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Code</th>
<th>Topic</th>
<th>Vote</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Resolution: SCA/1/1</td>
<td>Financial and Social Considerations to the Situation in Iraq</td>
<td>15 votes in favor, 0 votes against, 0 abstentions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Resolution: SCA/1/2</td>
<td>The Situation in Iraq and Social Media</td>
<td>13 votes in favor, 1 vote against, 1 abstention</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Resolution: SCA/1/3</td>
<td>The Situation in Iraq and Sustainable Rule of Law</td>
<td>Adopted without a vote</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Resolution: SCA/2/1</td>
<td>The Situation in South Sudan</td>
<td>14 votes in favor, 1 vote against, 0 abstentions</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Summary Report

The United Nations Security Council (SC) held its annual session to consider the following agenda items:

I. The Situation in Iraq
II. Measures to Combat Terrorism in Africa
III. Maintenance of International Peace and Security: Security Sector Reform

The session was attended by representatives of fifteen Member States.

On Sunday, the body adopted the agenda of I, II, III, beginning discussion on the topic of The Situation in Iraq. On Tuesday, the Dais received a total of four proposals covering a wide range of sub-topics including the sustainable rule of law, financial and social issues, humanitarian needs, counter-terrorism, corruption, securing financial systems in order to prevent the financing of terrorism, and addressing the needs of civilians. The Security Council also addressed the United Nations Assistance Mission in Iraq (UNAMI), the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL), women’s security against sexual and gender based violence, and the role social media plays in terrorism. The committee’s engagement in addressing the situation in Iraq was enthusiastic and was based on a strong foundation of diplomacy.

On Wednesday, four draft resolutions had been approved by the Dais, one of which had an amendment. The committee adopted three resolutions following voting procedure, one of which received unanimous support by the body. The resolutions represented a wide range of issues ranging from UNAMI’s mandate, the protection of civilians, and creating new action programs for community development to humanitarian assistance, to engaging the Peacebuilding Commission in the reinforcement of legal institutions in Iraq.

The body immediately amended its established agenda to consider the situation in South Sudan. After thorough debate, the Council adopted by acclamation a resolution on the situation in South Sudan that expanded the mandate and capacity of the United Nations Mission in South Sudan, addressed peacebuilding, peacekeeping and capacity building, and established a extension of the International Criminal Court for the ongoing conflict.
The Security Council,

Recalling the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC), in which the international community affirmed its commitment to prevent corruption through the criminalization of certain conduct,

Taking note of the report of the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force (CTITF), titled Tackling the Financing of Terrorism, which outlines the imperative necessity for developing international standards to combat terrorism financing,

Further recalling all relevant resolutions, particularly General Assembly resolutions 46/51 (1991) and 49/60 (1994), in which the international community adopted the Declaration on Measures to Eliminate International Terrorism to absolutely condemn all acts of terrorism,

Noting with concern Security Council resolutions 8471 (2005) and 11544 (2014), which call upon the international community to strengthen cooperation and coordination of anti-terrorism measures,

Emphasizing the importance of the role of women for conflict avoidance and resolution of conflict, particularly during post-conflict development and reconciliation, as specified in Security Council resolutions 1325 (2000), 1820 (2008), 1888 (2009), 1889 (2009), accentuating the importance of their full involvement in reestablishing and maintaining lasting peace,

Reaffirming Security Council resolution 1272 (2001) establishing the need to further suppress terrorist economic sustainability within the international community,

Guided by the Geneva Convention of 1949 and Additional Protocols of 1977, outlining the obligation of parties to armed conflict to ensure mutual respect for the humanitarian situation of civilians caught within conflict,

Further reaffirming Security Council resolutions 1373 (2001) and 1624 (2005), which created the Counter-Terrorism Committee (CTC) in order to implement necessary measures to counteract terrorist activities,

1. Invites all Member States to ratify and adhere to the United Nations Convention against Corruption, in particular to provide effective multi-lateral assistance in the removal of corruption and mechanisms pertaining to corruption;

2. Further requests in light of the urgent situation in Iraq, that the Secretary-General extends the mandate of the CTITF established in 2005, to include measures to halt the financial viability of terrorist groups by:

   a. Streamlining coordination and cooperation efforts with the United Nations Assistance Mission for Iraq (UNAMI) and the UN Financial Information Unit;

   b. Developing a procedure for administrative freezing of funds which have been identified by financial institutions as sources that finance terrorist organizations;
c. Establishing a mechanism to address non-compliant financial institutions guided by appropriate measures as identified by the mandate of the CTITF;

3. Calls upon the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) to continue their efforts towards countering the finance of terrorism, specifically for the Islamic State and the Levant (ISIL) and Al Qaida, by:
   a. Requiring financial institutions to collect and maintain account ownership information and by creating reports of suspicious transactions that will be more comprehensive;
   b. Freezing assets which have been identified by Iraq’s financial institutions to be derived from terrorist organizations, through the support of the UN Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia (UNESCWA);
   c. Collaborating with Iraq in the development of standards to combat terrorism financing through the provision of technical support in the implementation of the aforementioned standards;
   d. Implementing these principles for three years following the adoption of this resolution, with evaluation and consultation on the possibility of renewal by the Security Council, UNAMI, and other key parties;

4. Invites the New Development Bank (NBD), the International Monetary Fund (IMF), the World Bank (WB), and other relevant international financial institutions to formulate a plan of action for Iraq in accordance to the:
   a. Provision of technical assistance for cooperative financial intuitions such as but not limited to:
      i. The formation of an oversight commission based on respective members of involved organizations;
      ii. Short-term and long-term on-site advisory missions;
      iii. Assignment of expert advisors;
   b. Establishment of non-partisan institutions to analyze the assets and transactions of ISIL and other terrorist organizations, therein exhibiting where illicit trade occurs more often and which parties are involved;
   c. Application of the recommendations set forth by UNAMI, the United Nations Financial and Information Unit, and the United Nations Global Counter-Terrorism Commission in their assessment of best practices to address terrorism finance;

5. Further invites willing and able Member States to increase their contributions to the International Reconstructive Fund, as instigated by the World Bank with greater coordination with UNESCWA, in order to facilitate the ability of the Iraqi government to address the:
   a. Situation of refugees, including their ability to access food, shelter, clean water, and medical supplies;
   b. Lack of capacity building within criminal justice, healthcare, and social support systems;
   c. Incidents of gender disparities, which would promote the empowerment of women in society;

6. Asks UNAMI’s Office of Political Affairs, in collaboration with the NBD, WB, UN Development Fund, the IMF, as well as the Consultative Group to Assist the Poorest (CGAP), to consider in a multi-lateral framework, the establishment of a microcredit system for women in Iraq, which shall be referred to as United Nations Microcredit System for Women in Iraq (UNMSWI), which would:
   a. Situation of refugees, including their ability to access food, shelter, clean water, and medical supplies;
   b. Enhance women’s social position in order to advance communal wellbeing;
c. Promote the advancement of inclusive policies within the national government to enhance the participation of women in the political system and pursuits;

7. Encourages the Iraqi government to intensify its efforts towards achieving the promotion of civil society development, by:

   a. Boosting cooperation among the relevant stakeholders to facilitate the exchange and development of intelligence capabilities within the civil sector;

   b. Furthering the efforts of the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights in establishing Civil Service procedures and participants within conflict zones, specifically development the work of UNAMI within Iraq;

   c. Advancing the work of the United Nations Framework for Accountability, which emphasizes the importance of accountability in the development of effective partners for aid and trade;

8. Requests that willing and able Member States continue to work closely with providers of technical assistance, namely the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC), to aid Iraq in the process of disrupting illicit financial flows to terrorist organizations;

9. Further requests that the Security Council Counter-Terrorism Committee (CTC) continues to fulfill their mandate to fully investigate and prosecute all parties involved in the financing of terrorism, in order to assist Iraq in the implementation of the commitments set forth in this document;

10. Expresses its hope that the Committee for Development Policy (CDP), which is a subsidiary body of United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), provides assistance to Iraq, outlining emerging cross-sectoral development issues and providing recommendations premised on sustainable economic development and international cooperation;

11. Decides to remain seized of the matter.
The Security Council,

Noting with deep concern that terrorist acts threaten the maintenance of international peace and security,

Recalling the principals of collectiveness and fraternity of the Charter of the United Nations (UN) in order to maintain peace and security,

Emphasizing articles 24 and 41 of the Charter of the UN, which outlines its primary responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security without the use of armed forces by the Security Council,

Declaring that terrorism can only be defeated by a comprehensive approach involving the active participation and collaboration of all Member States,

Recalling Security Council resolution 2170 (2014) and 2178 (2014), which condemn terrorist acts by the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL) and its violent extremism which can conduce to terrorism, sectarian violence and the execution of terrorist acts by foreign fighters,

Reaffirming the importance to coordinate efforts at international and regional levels to counter terrorism in all its forms and manifestations as stated in the United Nations Global Counter Terrorism Strategy of General Assembly in resolution 20/288 (2006),

Cognizant of the fact terrorist groups are using contemporary means of mass communication as a key tool for the recruitment of national and foreign fighters, the promotion of extremist ideologies, and the financing of their operations,

Recognizes that ISIL’s propaganda reaches communities who do not have access to modern means of communication,

Observing that terrorist groups have used propaganda to project an image of military, economic, and political dominance in order to intimidate the Middle East,

Taking into consideration that propaganda through social media outlets increase the potential recruitment of youth internationally,

Taking note of General Assembly resolution 60/288 (2006), that includes the use of Internet in the Global Counter-Terrorism Strategy,

Noting with appreciation the activities and work undertaken in the area of counter terrorism measures and terrorism studies by the Counter Terrorism Committee (CTC) and the Counter Terrorism Implementation Task Force (CTITF) and especially its working group on Countering the Use of the Internet for Terrorist Purposes,

Recognizing the effectiveness of community outreach programs, such as Iraq Community Action Program (CAP) and Community Action Program III,

1. Reminds that terrorism and propagation of any radical ideologies cannot and should not be associated with any particular religion, ethnicity, nationality, or civilization;

2. Condemns the distortion of the message of Islam by ISIL through online propaganda to justify its terrorist attacks in Iraq and around the world;
3. Calls upon the CTC put in place by Security Council resolution 1373 (2001) to hold one of its annual visits to Iraq and to focus its attention on the impact on terrorist propaganda on the people of Iraq;

4. Supports the launch of a global research network by the CTC aimed at strengthening its capacity, studying new trends and development related to terrorism, and preventing the spread of violent extremist ideologies;

5. Further recommends the implementation of a global Counteract ISIL social media campaign called Social Anti-ISIL Counteract (SOCRATIC) build from propositions made by organizations such as the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), the Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), and United Nations Interregional Crime and Justice Research Institute (UNICRI), and implemented by Member States on national basis,

6. Asks for the support of the Secretary General and UNESCO in order to internationally promote the approach of the SOCRATIC with the help of Member States civil society in order to:
   a. Use prominent social networks to provide a counter narrative to the propaganda of ISIL based on the promotion of Human Rights;
   b. Inform the population of unlawful and inhumane acts by these terrorist groups;

7. Decides that Secretary General should provide the core message of the SOCRATIC on its reports of extremist ideologies, working closely with UNAMI in the specific context of Iraq,

8. Endorses social media guidelines established by the United Nations Department of Public Information (UNDPI), in order to project a coherent, timely, and consistent message for the SOCRATIC;

9. Encourages Member States to reach communities who do not have easy access to means of communication and social media by implementing community outreach programs in order to:
   a. Emphasize the United Nation goals of peace and security, social and cultural self-expression, and promotion of human rights;
   b. Prevent youth involvement in violent extremist groups with the help of UNICEF, by showing the alternative of economic, freedoms, democracy and the rule of law;
   c. Promote education programs for local population, with the help of UNESCO;

10. Decides that UNAMI supports the implementation of community outreach programs by the Iraqi government in order to organize volunteers from all ethnic and religious groups with the task to bring the positive message of the SOCRATIC into local communities;

11. Further proclaims the Committee of Experts on Terrorism (CODEXTER) as a tool to:
   a. Implement practices concerning prevention and suppression of terrorism;
   b. Establish the protection and compensation of ISIL victims;
   c. Examine other facets related to combat terrorism;
   d. Strengthen the community outreach programs and SOCRATIC;

12. Encourages Member States to provide more financial logistical security resources to UNAMI to make sure the mission can efficiently accomplish its mandate;

13. Decides to remain actively seized of the matter.
The Security Council,

Recalling the principles of liberty, equality and fraternity of the United Nations Charter,

Considering Security Council resolution 1770 (2007), which extended the United Nations Assistance Mission in Iraq (UNAMI) mandate to support the Government of Iraq in the process of an inclusive political dialogue and national reconciliation, Bearing in mind that an effective rule of law adheres to the country-specific context, as reflected in the Security Council Presidential Statement Promotion and strengthening of the rule of law in the maintenance of international peace and security, and legal institutions are essential for peacebuilding and transitional justice,

Reaffirming Security Council resolution 1645 (2005) establishing the Peacebuilding Commission (PBC) as an intergovernmental advisory body, with the mandate to focus attention on the reconstruction and institution-building efforts necessary for recovery from conflict,

Deeply concerned with the increasingly volatile situation in Iraq between the various ethnic and religious identity groups,

Emphasizing the work of the Special Representative of the Secretary-General for Iraq (SRSG) in chairing the first and second in a series of roundtable forums on national dialogue and reconciliation in Karbala and Basra, respectively,

Further emphasizing the need for national ownership of a truth and reconciliation process that involves all relevant groups, so that the Iraqi people can begin to heal from past and present grievances, and to rebuild trust between religious and ethnic groups across all sectors of Iraqi society,

1. Proposes that UNAMI provide counseling and guidelines to the Iraqi government for the future establishment of a national Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) that would aim towards the rebuilding of the relationship between the different religious and ethnic groups within the Iraqi society by:

   a. Assisting the Iraqi government through UNAMI’s Political Affairs Office and its Human Rights Office prepare a framework to implement the TRC;

   b. Identifying the locations and the regions where the TRC will be implemented;

   c. Providing the Iraqi government with a financial reporting that outlines the potential costs and required resources for the implementation of the TRC;

2. Requests the SRSG for Iraq to consult with Iraqi government officials, tribal leaders, civil society, community and religious leaders to establish the third Roundtable Forum on Peaceful Coexistence, National Dialogue and Reconciliation, which will:

   a. Be held in the capital city of Baghdad beginning on the 15th of April, 2015;

   b. Discuss the matter of participation and representation of the various sectarian groups in the processes of national dialogue and the TRC;
c. Determine specific criminal actions committed by persons related to or influenced by ISIL that would be considered illicit by an Iraqi TRC, as opposed to penalizing specific persons or groups based on their respective identity;

d. Produce a report on the recommendations determined by the participants for concrete steps forward in the process of national, inclusive dialogue;

3. Instructs the UN Peacebuilding Commission (PBC) to adopt Iraq to its agenda;

4. Requests the PBC to assist the Iraqi government in proposing a five-year policy framework, which should reinforce legal institutions, by:

   a. Establishing a central executive authority with the jurisdiction to implement the Iraqi rule of law;

   b. Clarify the jurisdiction of relevant sectors of the government;

   c. Defining specific mechanisms for the application of the law and the means through which to enforce compliance;

   d. Strengthening the legitimacy and effectiveness of Iraq’s governmental structure and its support of the rule of law in transitional justice by:

      i. Including support for the rule of law which should take into account traditional justice methods and respect for human rights in Iraq;

      ii. Establishing standards for an open dialogue among all relevant actors to ensure a collaborative environment;

      iii. Ensuring that the allocation of resources is guided by the principles of availability, accessibility, affordability, and transparency in the legal sector and transitional justice process;

      iv. Recognizing that ineffective justice institutions result in weaker political, social, and economic sectors;

5. Urges all Member States to pursue their efforts to support UNAMI in its mission to promote national reconciliation in Iraq;

6. Decides to remain actively seized of the matter.
The Security Council,

Acknowledging the worsening situation in South Sudan and the potential involvement of Uganda and Sudan,

Concerned about the deteriorated situation regarding the humanitarian crisis in South Sudan,

Bearing in mind Article 52 of the Charter of the United Nations that states that the issues related to the maintenance of international peace and security can be treated by regional arrangements and actors such as the African Union,

Recalling the unanimous adoption of Security Council resolution 2206 (2015) establishing UN sanctions towards those undermining the peace and stability of South Sudan and Security Council resolution 2155 (2014), providing more weapons and funding for the military use of the African Union in these events,

Reminding the involved parties in the conflict of the breach of obligations set forward in the Cessation of Hostilities (CoH) Agreement of January 2014,

Appalled by the reports of the use of child soldiers and any other violations of human rights by both parties involved in the conflict and allegations that government forces are recruiting child soldiers,

Concerned with the safety and wellbeing of civilians who have been caught in the violence,

Expresses its support for the people of South Sudan and renews its steadfast commitment to the peace and security of the country,

Guided by the will of international community to provide a multilateral solution to the crisis at hand,

Recognizes the work of the Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD) to create peace talks between the South Sudan Government and rebel forces,

Recognizing that South Sudan’s infrastructure relies dominantly on oil production,

Considering the close partnership between the United Nations World Food Programme, the Emergency Preparedness Integration Center (EPIC), emergency.lu, and the African Union,

1. Condemns the use of child soldiers by all parties, as well as the deliberate targeting of refugee camps, and the targeting of victims on ethnic and political grounds;

2. Expands the United Nations Mission in South Sudan (UNMISS) Protection of Civilians (PoC) and Internally Displaced Persons (IDP) settlements to the capacity determined by the African Union, as well as services of and access to such settlements:
   a. Grants all possible assistance to the African Union peacekeeping troops stationed in PoC and IDP settlements to protect the transportation infrastructure between rural areas and settlements;
   b. Encourages African Union peacekeeping troops to provide safe and adequate transportation to people in need by conducting rescue operations to critical areas;

3. Endorses the African Union to increase the presence of military personnel for the purposes of peacebuilding and peacekeeping, and protection of civilians;
4. Requests that all willing and Member States provide humanitarian personnel, humanitarian assistance, and economic assistance to the African Union;

5. Demanding the involved parties prohibit violations of international humanitarian law, human rights, and abuses of children and vulnerable populations;

6. Calls upon the IGAD to renew peace talks to review the Cessation of Hostilities and continue the reports of violations of the Cessation of Hostilities Agreement;

7. Condemns the use of unilateral force during internal conflict situations and recognizes the necessity of multilateral cooperation;

8. Implements a rapid response solution for disaster relief and humanitarian operations in coordination with the Emergency Telecommunications Cluster (ETC), the World Food Programme, and the European Union, which aim for:
   a. End-to-end services adapted to the requirement of the international humanitarian organizations deployed on the field;
   b. Coverage of the entire service train including air transport, satellite infrastructure, terminals and services;
   c. Establishment of wireless local network to allow aid workers to connect with their devices and use the satellites capacity that can be freely accessed;

9. Calls upon the implementation of multilateral cooperation for the protection of the oil fields positioned in South Sudan in order to ensure that extremist organizations do not acquire additional funding:
   a. Supporting the African Union and their soldiers in their measures taken, defend and secure South Sudanese oil fields and civilians involved;
   b. Providing the African Union all possible technical and logistical support;

10. Establishes an International Criminal Tribunal for the Conflict in South Sudan (ICTCSS), under the jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court (ICC):
   a. Mandates the ICTCSS to prosecute fully all violates of humanitarian law, including but not limited to the recruitment and use of child soldiers in conflict;
   b. Provides all possible financial and logistical support through the ICC to the ICTCSS;

11. Decides to remain actively seized of the matter.