NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

nmun.org

NY-A: 6–10 April
NY-B: 13–17 April

NMUN Mission: To advance understanding of the UN and contemporary global issues through quality educational programs that emphasize collaboration and cooperative conflict resolution and prepare participants for active global citizenship.

Learning Outcomes: National Model United Nations (NMUN) allows delegates to apply theoretical knowledge of international relations and of the United Nations system in a practical, hands-on setting. Through preparation and participation, students will develop transferable skills such as leadership, negotiation, collaboration, public speaking, researching, and technical writing; advance a responsibility to be actively involved in global issues; and enhance their understanding of the structure of the international system and challenges of global diplomacy.

Join the NMUN Volunteer Team!

We seek enthusiastic NMUN conference alumni from around the globe who are willing to help organize the world's largest university-level simulation of the United Nations. Many of our volunteer staff members are current graduate or undergraduate students.

We need volunteers with expertise in conference organization, committee management, outreach, research, and computer programming.

Build skills in facilitation of debate, conflict resolution, and customer service. Learn about current global issues while working alongside delegates. Form lifelong friendships with other volunteers from throughout the world.

We offer in-depth training, provide shared hotel accommodations, and help pay for most travel expenses.

MESSAGE TO NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS (NMUN•NY)

New York, 6-10 April and 13-17 April 2025

Dear friends,

Thank you for taking part in this Model United Nations – and for believing in the power of global cooperation.

You are leaders in your schools and communities.

And this is a time like no other for all people to raise their voices and engage in our global community.

We are living in turbulent times.

Our planet is burning, conflicts are raging, and inequalities are deepening.

Human rights are under fire.

Mistrust and misinformation are polarizing people and communities.

But none of this is inevitable.

Time and again, humanity has shown that when we unite to tackle our greatest challenges, change is possible.

The United Nations itself is a good example.

Since 1945, it has been the place for countries to unite behind global solutions to global problems.

We need that same spirit of global solidarity today.

And we need your ideas, energy, determination and voice.

The Member States of the United Nations recently adopted the Pact for the Future, the Global Digital Compact, and the Declaration on Future Generations.

These initiatives are designed to strengthen multilateralism and to actively engage young people in deeper and more meaningful ways.

I firmly believe that your voices must count in the way decisions are made, strategies are established, policies are defined, and actions are implemented.

And I have no doubt that your Model United Nations experience will help develop those skills even more.

Let's keep working to build peace, heal divisions, and extend a hand to those in need, especially the most vulnerable.

The United Nations is your ally in this important journey.

We will never give up fighting for a future of peace, dignity and prosperity for everyone, everywhere.

And I am counting on you to be a force of positive change to help get us there.

I wish you every success.

Thank you.

NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS 2025

New York City, 6 – 10 April and 13 – 17 April

Dear Delegates, Faculty Advisors, Guests, and Friends,

We are honored to welcome you to the 2025 National Model United Nations New York (NMUN•NY) Conference. Over the next two weeks, you will meet other like-minded individuals from around the globe to learn about the work of the United Nations and deepen your understanding of critical global issues while cultivating a strong commitment to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). We believe this immersive experience will empower you to explore innovative solutions, foster collaboration, and inspire meaningful contributions to solving global issues.

Only five years remain to achieve the 2030 SDGs. The challenges seem insurmountable: conflicts are increasing; the climate crisis is worsening; and multilateralism is in decline. In the face of all of this, it is easy to lose hope and give in to cynicism. But this is why this conference matters and why we chose “Rise to Shine” as this year's theme. With 2030 dawning, we want to encourage delegates to rise to address global challenges and take on leadership roles within their communities and beyond. We hope this conference inspires you to actively work toward a more equitable, sustainable, and peaceful future.

As Secretary-General António Guterres remarked in his opening address at the United Nations General Assembly last September, “we confront a world in trouble. But the good news is that we can do something about it.” In a rapidly changing world facing significant challenges, we aim to empower delegates to rise to the occasion and shine brightly, using the insights gained from NMUN to foster hope and drive positive change.

On behalf of the entire Secretariat and Board of Directors, welcome to NMUN•NY 2025. Have an inspiring and impactful conference!

Sincerely,

Maike Weitzel

Monday Delegate Seminars 1 (9:30 a.m.) and 2 (10:45 a.m.)

3rd Floor, Trianon Ballroom. Open to everyone without a Mission Briefing at this time.

NY-A, Seminar 1: UNRWA's Work and Next Steps

Join our keynote speaker from the Opening Ceremony, Mara Kronenfeld, as she delves more deeply into the work of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees USA (UNRWA USA). There will be time for Q&A.

NY-B, Seminar 1: OCHA's Role in UN Humanitarian Assistance

Join this fireside chat with Jake Morland, a member of the UN Disaster Assessment Coordination Team at the UN Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA). Come delve into OCHA's role in humanitarian coordination throughout the world. Offered in partnership with UN Youth of Canada (UNYC), organized by its cofounder, Andrew Abou Mourad, and moderated by Amierah Ismail, Humanitarian Affairs Officer at OCHA. Share your questions during the Q&A.

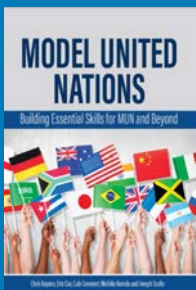

NY-A & B, Seminar 2: Career Opportunities at the UN Secretariat

The UN Secretariat's Office of Human Resources warmly invites you to a special session featuring alumni from the Young Professionals Programme (YPP). A unique opportunity to hear directly from individuals who have successfully navigated their way into impactful roles within the UN. Learn firsthand about the challenges and successes of securing a position at the UN from YPP alumni hailing from various regions around the globe. Explore the multiple pathways for joining the UN, including direct applications, the JPO Programme, and registration in the UN Global Talent Pool. Interact with UN staff during a live Q&A.

Monday Faculty Interactive Workshop: Best Practices in Teaching MUN Speeches

3 - 4:30 p.m., 2nd Floor, Morgan. All Faculty are encouraged to attend.

Participate in this interactive session on ways to teach students how to write and deliver MUN speeches. Join Cale Crammer, Chris Haynes, and Michiko Kuroda, some of the authors of a MUN textbook, Model United Nations: Building Essential Skills for MUN and Beyond (Cognella, Aug. 2025), for a short author-led talk on pedagogical approaches and lesson plans. Then, there will be facilitated small group breakouts with a chance for faculty to share best practices. The short course style used will mirror conferences on the scholarship of teaching and learning. Come share your experiences and be a mentor/mentee, gaining additional ideas, approaches, and materials to enhance student learning.

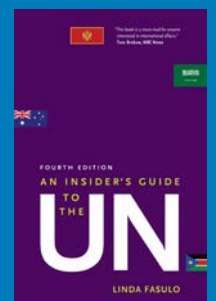

Tuesday Faculty Seminar: An Insider's Guide to the UN

3 - 4 p.m., 2nd Floor, Morgan. Faculty, Guests, and Head Delegates not assigned to a committee are invited.

This fireside chat with journalist and author Linda Fasulo is back by popular demand. Join us as Tina Zappile/Alynn Lyon interview Linda and ask probing questions about pertinent issues before the UN. Given the current world situation, there's no better time to get a better understanding of the complex world of the UN. Come learn, from an insider, how the UN works and doesn't work, its strengths and weakness, who the key players are, and how things get done. Linda represents NPR News at the UN as an Independent Correspondent and is author of An Insider's Guide to the UN. Prepare your questions for the Q&A period.

Abbreviations for where each school is located are from the UN Statistics Division.

Here we recognize those institutions attending this year for which participation is a school tradition. The long-term support of these schools reflects the hard work and dedication of faculty advisors, students, and administrators. It shows commitment to experiential learning opportunities like NMUN as well as the ideals embodied by the United Nations. We are greatly indebted to them for their leadership in continuing to enhance the conference. We look forward to welcoming more schools to this list in the future as new institutions start an NMUN tradition and returning schools continue to build a legacy. Data are taken from registration records and programs. The count doesn't include this year's conference. Schools without () are in the U.S.

Judy K. Eaton Service Award

This service award was established in 2021 by the NMUN Board of Directors. Named in memory of Judy Eaton, our longest serving volunteer (20 years), who passed away in December 2020. She cherished her role at the conference and happily worked behind the scenes preparing registration packets and checking on faculty, staff, and delegates during the week – making her rounds as Ambassador Mom. The award intends to recognize others who have demonstrated exceptional commitment to the conference over time.

- 2021: Prof. Carol M. Glen, Valdosta State University
Prof. Richard Murgo, Tallahassee State College
- 2022: Prof. Francine J. D'Amico, Syracuse University, Maxwell School
- 2023: Prof. Lori Zenuk-Nishide, Kobe City University of Foreign Studies
- 2024: Andrea Wong
- 2025: Prof. Chaldeans Mensah, MacEwan University

NMUN Expectations of Conduct

Our intention is to create an environment at National Model United Nations (NMUN) that supports our educational mission. Professionalism in speech, actions, and appearance by all participants (delegates, head delegates, faculty, delegation leaders, guests, secretariat, staff, and board members) is a requirement of all NMUN conferences. These guidelines are provided to help establish clear expectations.

NMUN reserves the right to bar violators from further participation and/or restrict future registration for any participant or school unable to uphold their responsibility to the conference's expectations.

Everyone

- Treat everyone, including non-NMUN hotel guests, with the highest level of courtesy and respect at all times, including on social media and in electronic communications.
- Enjoy the variety of activities available at our conference venues. Please bear in mind, however, that the purpose of being here is participation in NMUN.
- Disruption of committee sessions or causing problems in the hotel or other facilities will not be tolerated.
- Respect academic integrity; plagiarism will not be tolerated.
- Alcohol is not allowed in any of our committee sessions. If you are going to drink, please drink responsibly. Excessive alcohol consumption should be avoided. The U.S. legal drinking age is 21.
- Possession or use of illicit drugs is prohibited at all times. Any issues related to illicit drugs may be directed to the attention of local authorities.
- Follow the dress code while attending conference events.
- Respect the property of the United Nations, our host hotels, and any other facilities used. Keep in mind that our facility partners have separate policies that include the potential for removal from their properties.

Delegates

- Remain in character by consistently advocating the interests and representing the policies of the country assigned. To act in character also entails displaying respect for the opinions and ideas of fellow delegates, even if these opinions and ideas conflict with a given delegate's own country's priorities.
- Collaborate with fellow delegates whenever possible.

Head Delegates

- If assigned to a committee, follow the delegates expectations. If serving solely in an advisory role, follow the faculty expectations.
- Attend and participate in any head delegates briefings.

Faculty Advisors

- Make efforts to ensure that students maintain a positive and professional approach to the conference and help them understand the skills of diplomacy as practiced at NMUN.
- Serve as information resources when appropriate, but do not participate in the actual writing of resolutions or caucusing activities; participation in the committee process must be left to the student delegates and the conference volunteer staff.
- Quietly observe your students from the outer perimeter of committee rooms.
- Refrain from using academic credit and grading policies that force participation beyond a country's normal position in the UN; awards should not be a delegation's main emphasis.
- Attend and participate in any faculty advisors meetings.

Guests

- Guests are required to adhere to the same expectations as all other conference attendees.
- Guests serve as observers.
- Guests may not be enrolled university students or faculty advisors and do not provide any support to a delegation. A guest is typically a school official, spouse/partner/child of a faculty advisor, or a funder who is interested in learning about NMUN.

In the event of an emergency in the hotel or UN, follow their guidelines. Emergency preparedness experts recommend having a designated meeting spot outside the hotel and sharing cell phone numbers amongst members of your delegation.

Serious incidents of sexual harassment or discrimination may be referred to conference organizers using our online reporting form. Conference organizers will consider the merits of the allegations received during a conference and respond appropriately. Outcomes may include issuing a verbal reprimand, expelling violators from the conference without compensation, barring violators from future NMUN involvement, or any other action deemed appropriate. Allegations received after a conference will generally be referred to the involved delegations' academic institutions. If they notify us of a determination of guilt, NMUN may take any of the actions listed above.

Sexual violence, which includes rape and sexual assault, is a crime in the U.S. punishable under the criminal justice system. Anyone who believes they are the victim of sexual violence, are at risk of experiencing sexual violence, or have witnessed actual or attempted sexual violence should, in the U.S., contact law enforcement by calling 9-1-1 and notify NMUN. We will notify the appropriate authorities, if not already contacted. To ensure the safety of all NMUN participants, we will immediately remove potential violators from the conference and may take further action. We encourage all participants to review their campus sexual violence handbook for further information on sexual violence and resources available for victims.

- Active Engagement in Committee — during both formal sessions and informal caucuses.
- Professionalism and Diplomatic Values — advocate for your assigned country's position in a manner consistent with its economic, social, and geopolitical constraints.
- Proper Use of the Rules of Procedure — facilitate effective workings of the committee and debate; do not impede it.

About Us

NMUN began in 1927 as a Model League of Nations. Our UN simulation started with the General Assembly and then expanded and transitioned to include other organs. Originally, attendees were from U.S. mid-Atlantic colleges and universities who rotated hosting duties on their campuses. Eventually, it expanded to colleges and universities from all over the world and has been held annually in New York City since 1964. Throughout its history, the conference has offered an experience-based educational program that furthers the understanding of contemporary international problems. Visit our Mission & History page for more details.

Today, NMUN•NY is the world's largest intercollegiate Model UN simulation. The 2025 New York conference will bring together thousands of delegates from six continents. This conference will simulate 16 committees at both Sessions. NMUN offers a unique opportunity for students to better understand the inner workings of the United Nations while building skills in diplomacy and compromise. College and university students from all over the world work feverishly to propose resolutions addressing regional conflicts, peacekeeping, human rights, women and children, economic and social development, and the environment.

NMUN conferences are one of the most effective tools for teaching students the dynamics of multilateral diplomacy and international relations. They provide a diverse group of informed participants a forum in which to discuss global concerns in a context that closely parallels the real world.

NMUN plans to hold upcoming conferences in New York City, New York; Washington, D.C.; Banff, Canada; and Barcelona, Spain. Since 2008, international simulations have been held in China, Ecuador, Czechia, France, Germany, the Republic of Korea, Italy, Japan, and Canada. Thank you to our partner organizations for their vision and support of our mission. We look forward to future conference partnerships and welcome your inquiry into potential opportunities.

NMUN is a U.S. 501(c)(3) nonprofit, educational organization; and a nongovernmental organization formally associated with the United Nations Department of Global Communications.

Friends and family of Maike Weitzel, especially my parents Betina and Ulrich, my siblings Nora and Lars, my (great-) grandparents for making me the person I am today, the Crabtree and Kroondijk families for taking in a complete stranger and making them part of their family. Thank you to Dr. Wesel and all who were part of MadMUN for believing in me and supporting me to pursue my NMUN career.

Friends and family of Eileen Austin, especially my parents Greg and Laurie, my brother Greg, my sisters and brothers-in-law Katie and Dan, Janet and Ray, and my nephews Raymond and Logan, each of whom supported me throughout my NMUN career. Thank you to Stephanie, Zack, Vikram, Lauren, McKenzie, Eric, Caitlin and Chase for your years of friendship and support, for answering all of my questions, and believing that I could do this.

Friends and family of Danielle Curtis, especially my partner, Simon, whose unwavering support made this year possible, my son Ruairí, my stepdaughter
Zara, my parents, Ruth and Paul, and my brother, Nathaniel, all of whom were so supportive throughout my NMUN career. Thank you to Nadine
Moussa, Ismail Dogar, Max Lacey and Dieyun Song. I am eternally grateful to each of you for believing in me and supporting me on this incredible journey.

Friends and family of Martin Schunk, especially Stef, Alfons, Archie, Chris, my Lola Justina and anyone in the Givertz-Tamparong family. Thank you also to Team Dev, especially Sam and Bob, for bringing me onto the staff as well as Phil Lehmann and anyone from my BaMUN days who opened the door into the Model UN world for me.

An aerial photograph of the Georgetown University campus in Washington, D.C. The image shows a dense cluster of red brick buildings, including the prominent Old Chapel with its tall, dark stone spire. The campus is situated on a hill overlooking the Potomac River, which is visible in the background. The sky is a deep blue, and the overall scene is bathed in a soft, golden light, suggesting late afternoon or early morning.
