NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS

nmun.org

NY-A: 29 March – 2 April
NY-B: 6 – 10 April

NMUN Mission: To advance understanding of the UN and contemporary global issues through quality educational programs that emphasize collaboration and cooperative conflict resolution and prepare participants for active global citizenship.

Learning Outcomes: National Model United Nations (NMUN) allows delegates to apply theoretical knowledge of international relations and of the United Nations system in a practical, hands-on setting. Through preparation and participation, students will develop transferable skills such as leadership, negotiation, collaboration, public speaking, researching, and technical writing; advance a responsibility to be actively involved in global issues; and enhance their understanding of the structure of the international system and challenges of global diplomacy.

Join the NMUN Volunteer Team!

We seek enthusiastic NMUN conference alumni from around the globe who are willing to help organize the world's largest university-level simulation of the United Nations. Many of our volunteer staff members are current graduate or undergraduate students.

We need volunteers with expertise in conference organization, committee management, outreach, research, and computer programming.

Build skills in facilitation of debate, conflict resolution, and customer service. Learn about current global issues while working alongside delegates. Form lifelong friendships with other volunteers from throughout the world.

We offer in-depth training, provide shared hotel accommodations, and help pay for most travel expenses.

MESSAGE TO THE NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS • NEW YORK
(NMUN•NY) CONFERENCE 2026

29 March-2 April and 6-10 April 2026

Dear friends,

Our world is in flux – power is shifting, divisions are deepening, and our future is clouded by climate chaos and runaway technologies.

But together, we can turn crisis into opportunity.

By taking part in a Model United Nations simulation, you are learning what it takes to build a better world.

It takes stamina; a command of the facts; and the courage to see other perspectives — always putting the needs of the most vulnerable first.

Across the globe, young people like you are driving change — through advocacy, organizing, and public service.

Your energy and determination inspire me. Keep using your talents for good.

At the United Nations, we are committed to opening more doors for young people to shape the decisions that affect their lives.

Yes, these are challenging times.

But challenging times forge great leaders.

I know some of those leaders are in this room today.

Thank you for believing in the power of global cooperation.

Together, we can build a world of dignity, justice, and peace for all.

NATIONAL MODEL UNITED NATIONS•NY 2026

New York City, 29 March – 2 April and 6 – 10 April

Dear Distinguished Delegates, Faculty Advisors, Guests, and Friends,

On behalf of the NMUN Board of Directors and Volunteer Secretariat, we are honored to welcome you to the 2026 National Model United Nations New York (NMUN•NY) Conference. Over the next week, you will meet many like-minded individuals from around the world as you deepen your understanding of the United Nations and address current global issues. We believe this immersive experience will empower you to collaborate with one another, challenge the status quo, and inspire meaningful contributions to solving some of the international community's toughest challenges.

With only four years left on the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), achieving many of the goals and their targets may seem unattainable. International conflicts are increasing, efforts to address the climate crisis are stagnant, multilateralism is in decline, and faith in justice systems is vanishing. While the temptation to give in to cynicism in the face of such dismay is understandable, we believe that you—the distinguished attendees of this conference—are here with hope to achieve the goals set forth in the 2030 Agenda and uphold the United Nations' mission.

Hope, in itself, is a noble start. However, it is only the first step. This is why we chose “Turn Hope into Action” as this year's theme. With 2030 fast approaching, we want to challenge you to transform your hopes into tangible actions that address global challenges and encourage you to take on leadership roles within your committee rooms, communities, and beyond. We hope this conference inspires you not just to hope for a better tomorrow, but to actively work toward a more equitable, sustainable, and peaceful future.

As Secretary-General António Guterres remarked in his opening address at the United Nations General Assembly this past September, “in a world of many choices, there is one choice we must never make: The choice to give up.” Our wish is that all attendees of this year's conference choose to stand up and take action for what is best for not just themselves but their communities, neighbors, and the international community as a whole.

We are excited to welcome you to NMUN•NY 2026 for a conference centered on inspiring meaningful action!

Sincerely,

Day 2 – Delegate Seminars

3rd Floor, Trianon Ballroom. Open to everyone without a Mission Briefing at this time.

NY-A, Seminar 1 (9:30 a.m.): Insights from UN Insiders

Join us for this conversation with Pamela Falk, Linda Fasulo, and our moderator, Michael Eaton. Given the current world situation, there's no better time to get a more complete understanding of the complex world of the UN. Linda is a UN Independent Correspondent for NPR News and author of An Insider's Guide to the UN. Pamela is the UN Resident Correspondent for U.S. News and World Report. Engage with our panel during the Q&A period!

NY-B, Seminar 1 (9:30 a.m.): Navigating Negotiations on Women's Rights at the UN

Join us at this interactive session. We will hear from Gabriela Márdero, Gender and Humanitarian Affairs, Permanent Mission of Mexico to the UN and Stéphanie Toschi, the Deputy Permanent Representative of Luxembourg to the UN. They will share their experiences and insights on how negotiations on women's rights at the United Nations actually occur. Attendees will be encouraged to share their thoughts and ask questions during the Q&A session.

NY-A & B, Seminar 2 (10:45 a.m.): Career Opportunities at the UN

The UN Office of Human Resources Secretariat invites NMUN participants to an interactive conversation on careers at the UN and the aspirations of the next generation of global professionals. Don't miss this unique opportunity to hear reflections from UN staff on their journeys into the organization and their experiences working there. Explore pathways for joining the UN, including the Junior Professional Officer Programme and Young Professionals Programme. Raise questions, share your perspective, and contribute to the conversation about careers in global public service during this session.

Day 3 – Faculty Seminar

3 - 4 p.m., 2nd Floor, Madison

Faculty, Guests, and Head Delegates not assigned to a committee are invited.

NY-A: U.S. Engagement at Multilateral Environmental Negotiations in 2025

While the U.S. has the political, economic, strategic, and diplomatic resources to be a leader on nearly every issue at the UN, the extent to which it has done so has varied. Join Pam Chasek, Co-Founder and Exec. Editor of the Earth Negotiations Bulletin, as she examines the U.S. administration's actions in 2025 at 36 multilateral meetings on environmental and sustainable development issues and the direct links to the Heritage Foundation's Project 2025. Prepare your questions for the Q&A period.

NY-B: Patterns, Predictions, and Prevention of Genocide

Zachary Karazsia, Valdosta State University, will discuss his new book: Genocide in the Modern Age. Does the rise of artificial intelligence and global surveillance technologies represent a fundamental shift in the nature of genocide and mass political violence atrocities? Or will these tools simply be new manifestations of an age-old scourge? What are the prospects of genocide and mass political violence in the digital age? Come examine some of the disturbing trends that have emerged over the last 125 years. Join the conversation by preparing your questions for the Q&A portion.

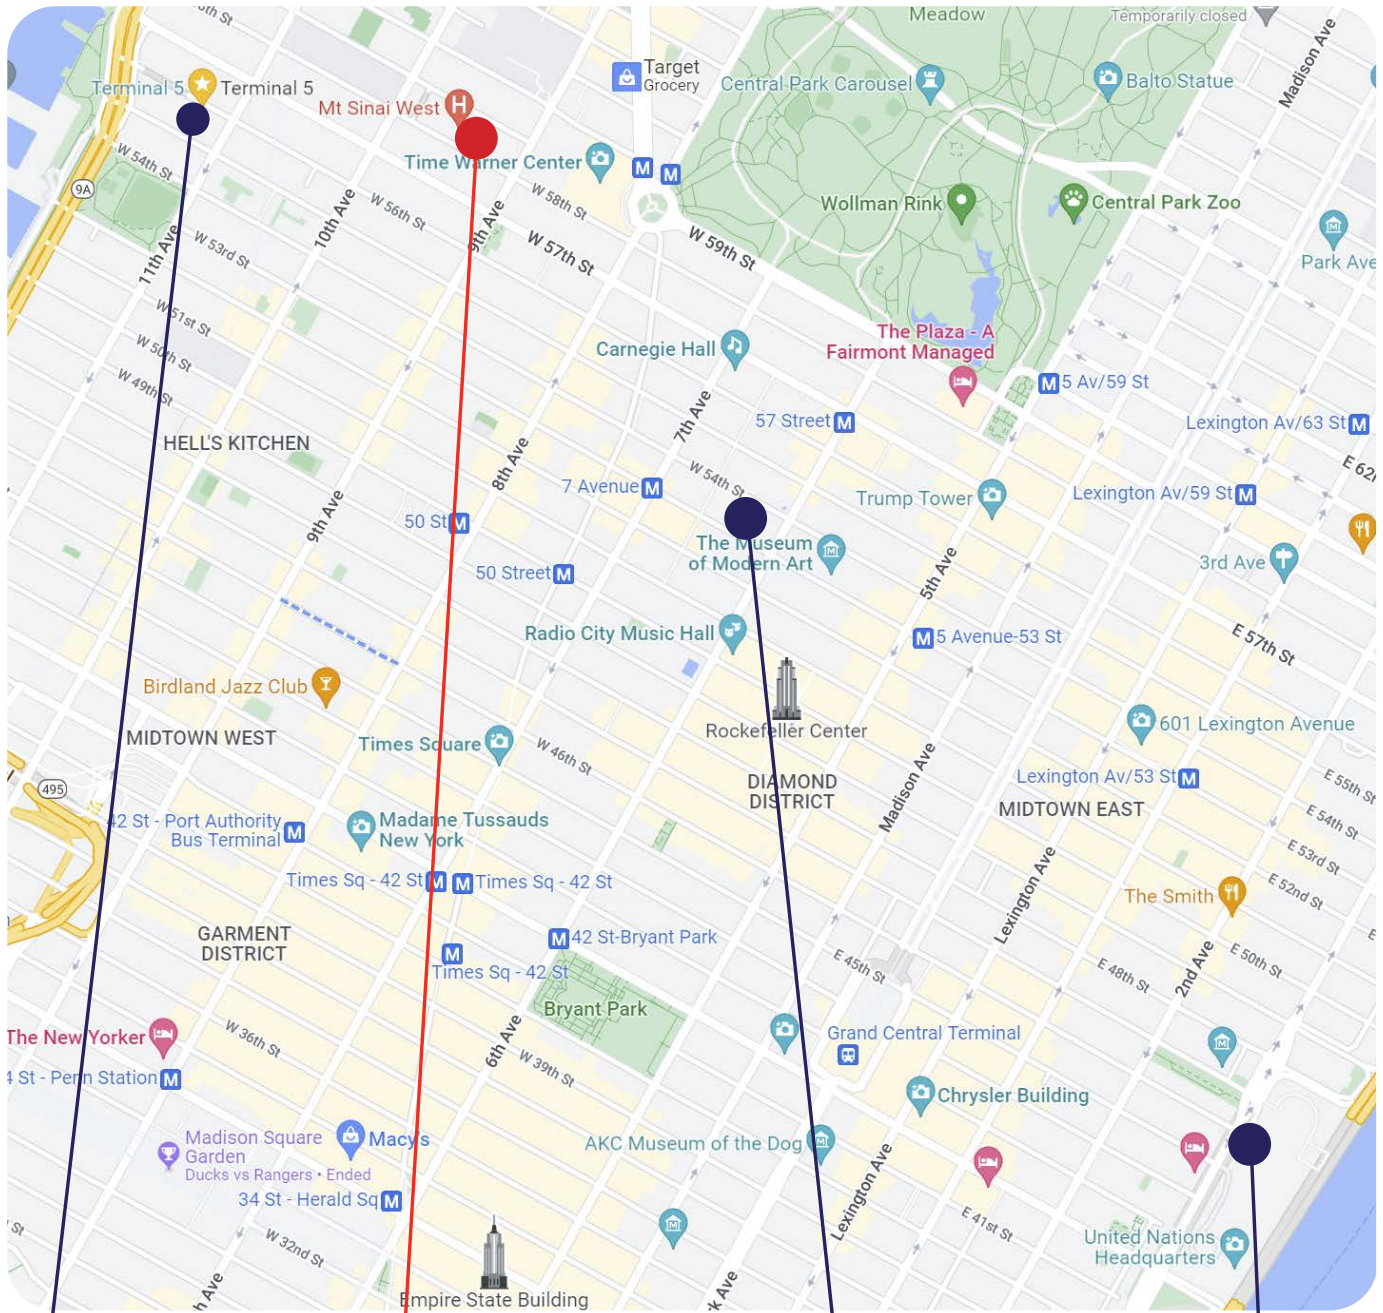

Getting to the UN from the Hilton: The UN is approximately 1.3 miles from the conference hotel.

Walking: It takes about 20 – 30 minutes to walk to the UN depending on how quickly you walk.

Public Transit: Use Google Maps, enter United Nations as your destination, tap the Public Transit icon.

Taxi/Ride Hailing: The drive to the UN takes about 15 minutes, longer if traffic is heavy.

NMUN•NY Video Contest

NMUN•NY delegations are invited to enter our video contest. To do so, capture the enthusiasm of our delegates and the many learning opportunities present at the conference on video. Then send it to us before the deadline. All winning entries are posted on our YouTube channel. Don't miss this opportunity to win a scholarship for your delegation to next year's New York conference.

For entry information, visit our Video Contest page.

Here we recognize those institutions attending this year for which participation is a school tradition. The long-term support of these schools reflects the hard work and dedication of faculty advisors, students, and administrators. It shows commitment to experiential learning opportunities like NMUN as well as the ideals embodied by the United Nations. We are greatly indebted to them for their leadership in continuing to enhance the conference. We look forward to welcoming more schools to this list in the future as new institutions start an NMUN tradition and returning schools continue to build a legacy. Data are taken from registration records and programs. The count doesn't include this year's conference. Schools without () are in the U.S.

Judy K. Eaton Service Award

This service award was established in 2021 by the NMUN Board of Directors. Named in memory of Judy Eaton, our longest serving volunteer (20 years), who passed away in December 2020. She cherished her role at the conference and happily worked behind the scenes preparing registration packets and checking on faculty, staff, and delegates during the week – making her rounds as Ambassador Mom. The award intends to recognize others who have demonstrated exceptional commitment to the conference over time.

NMUN Expectations of Conduct

Our intention is to create an environment at National Model United Nations (NMUN) that supports our educational mission. Professionalism in speech, actions, and appearance by all participants (delegates, head delegates, faculty, delegation leaders, guests, secretariat, staff, and board members) is a requirement of all NMUN conferences. These guidelines are provided to help establish clear expectations.

NMUN reserves the right to bar violators from further participation and/or restrict future registration for any participant or school unable to uphold their responsibility to the conference's expectations.

Everyone

- Treat everyone, including non-NMUN hotel guests, with the highest level of courtesy and respect at all times, including on social media and in electronic communications.
- Enjoy the variety of activities available at our conference venues. Please bear in mind, however, that the purpose of being here is participation in NMUN.
- Disruption of committee sessions or causing problems in the hotel or other facilities will not be tolerated.
- Respect academic integrity; plagiarism will not be tolerated.
- Alcohol is not allowed in any of our committee sessions. If you are going to drink, please drink responsibly. Excessive alcohol consumption should be avoided. The U.S. legal drinking age is 21.
- Possession or use of illicit drugs is prohibited at all times. Any issues related to illicit drugs may be directed to the attention of local authorities.
- Follow the dress code while attending conference events.
- Respect the property of the United Nations, our host hotel, and any other facilities used. Keep in mind that our facility partners have separate policies that include the potential for removal from their properties.

Delegates

- Remain in character by consistently advocating the interests and representing the policies of the country assigned. To act in character also entails displaying respect for the opinions and ideas of fellow delegates, even if these opinions and ideas conflict with a given delegate's own country's priorities.
- Collaborate with fellow delegates whenever possible.

Head Delegates

- If assigned to a committee, follow the delegates expectations. If serving solely in an advisory role, follow the faculty expectations.
- Attend and participate in any head delegates briefings.

Faculty Advisors

- Make efforts to ensure that students maintain a positive and professional approach to the conference and help them understand the skills of diplomacy as practiced at NMUN.
- Serve as information resources when appropriate, but do not participate in the actual writing of resolutions or caucusing activities; participation in the committee process must be left to the student delegates and the conference volunteer staff.
- Quietly observe your students from the outer perimeter of committee rooms.
- Refrain from using academic credit and grading policies that force participation beyond a country's normal position in the UN; awards should not be a delegation's main emphasis.
- Attend and participate in any faculty advisors meetings.

Guests

- Guests are required to adhere to the same expectations as all other conference attendees.
- Guests serve as observers.
- Guests may not be enrolled university students or faculty advisors and do not provide any support to a delegation. A guest is typically a school official, spouse/partner/child of a faculty advisor, or a funder who is interested in learning about NMUN.

Dress Code

All clothing must portray professionalism as expected in diplomatic settings. If attire is deemed inappropriate by NMUN staff, individuals may be asked to leave the session and return with appropriate attire.

- Professional business attire is a business jacket, dress shirt, tie, slacks/skirt/dress, and dress shoes. Professional dress expectations require that dresses and skirts be knee length. Delegates should be dressed in professional business attire that reflects their self-identified gender.
- Clothing considered too casual includes sweaters, novelty jackets, shorts, sundresses/other casual dresses, ball caps, jeans, sneakers, athletic wear, and sunglasses. Clothing that exposes excessive bare skin, shows undergarments, or is otherwise revealing is inappropriate.
- It is not appropriate to display any school or national symbols such as flags, pins, crests, etc. on your person during sessions. All UN symbols are acceptable.
- Traditional dress is permitted only for delegations in whose home countries it is considered professional business dress. NMUN will not tolerate any attempt to portray a character using traditional cultural attire as a costume.

Faculty advisors, delegation leaders, guests, and volunteer staff serve as role models for delegates. They too are required to dress in professional business attire while participating in scheduled conference sessions.

Safety & Security

Your safety and security are your personal responsibility. Take full advantage of this unique opportunity in a responsible manner. Please do not leave your computer or other personal electronic devices unattended. Remove conference badges when leaving the hotel. Refrain from any sort of substance abuse. Use common sense.

In the event of an emergency in the hotel or UN, follow their guidelines. Emergency preparedness experts recommend having a designated meeting spot outside the hotel and sharing cell phone numbers amongst members of your delegation.

Undiplomatic Behavior, Sexual Harassment, Discrimination, and Sexual Violence

Disrespectful behaviors in committee should first be addressed by attendees directly with one another or through their faculty advisor or head delegate. Repeated instances of undiplomatic behavior may be called to the attention of conference organizers by faculty advisors or head delegates through our online reporting form.

Sexual harassment and discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, age, or disability are not acceptable. Such acts are incompatible with NMUN's educational mission and are a violation of our Conduct Expectations. General descriptions of behavior that may be considered sexual harassment can be found in the UN's Code of Conduct.

Serious incidents of sexual harassment or discrimination may be referred to conference organizers using our online reporting form. Conference organizers will consider the merits of the allegations received during a conference and respond appropriately. Outcomes may include issuing a verbal reprimand, expelling violators from the conference without compensation, barring violators from future NMUN involvement, or any other action deemed appropriate. Allegations received after a conference will generally be referred to the involved delegations' academic institutions. If they notify us of a determination of guilt, NMUN may take any of the actions listed above.

Sexual violence, which includes rape and sexual assault, is a crime in the U.S. punishable under the criminal justice system. Anyone who believes they are the victim of sexual violence, are at risk of experiencing sexual violence, or have witnessed actual or attempted sexual violence should, in the U.S., contact law enforcement by calling 9-1-1 and notify NMUN. We will notify the appropriate authorities, if not already contacted. To ensure the safety of all NMUN participants, we will immediately remove potential violators from the conference and may take further action. We encourage all participants to review their campus sexual violence handbook for further information on sexual violence and resources available for victims.

Awards Criteria

NMUN has established Awards Criteria to evaluate delegate performance. Each element is equally important to the overall awards determination process. All committees are weighted equally and delegations are rated on a mathematical formula in relation to the total number of committees represented by the member state.

Areas of evaluation are:

- Active Engagement in Committee — during both formal sessions and informal caucuses.
- Professionalism and Diplomatic Values — advocate for your assigned country's position in a manner consistent with its economic, social, and geopolitical constraints.
- Proper Use of the Rules of Procedure — facilitate effective workings of the committee and debate; do not impede it.

About Us

NMUN began in 1927 as a Model League of Nations. Our UN simulation started with the General Assembly and then expanded and transitioned to include other organs. Originally, attendees were from U.S. mid-Atlantic colleges and universities who rotated hosting duties on their campuses. Eventually, it expanded to colleges and universities from all over the world and has been held annually in New York City since 1964. Throughout its history, the conference has offered an experience-based educational program that furthers the understanding of contemporary international problems. Visit our Mission & History page for more details.

Today, NMUN•NY is the world’s largest intercollegiate Model UN simulation. The 2026 New York conference will bring together thousands of delegates from six continents. This conference will simulate 16 committees at both Sessions. NMUN offers a unique opportunity for students to better understand the inner workings of the United Nations while building skills in diplomacy and compromise. College and university students from all over the world work feverishly to propose resolutions addressing regional conflicts, peacekeeping, human rights, women and children, economic and social development, and the environment.

NMUN conferences are one of the most effective tools for teaching students the dynamics of multilateral diplomacy and international relations. They provide a diverse group of informed participants a forum in which to discuss global concerns in a context that closely parallels the real world.

NMUN plans to hold upcoming conferences in New York City, New York; Washington, D.C.; Barcelona, Spain; and Wellington, New Zealand. Since 2008, international simulations have been held in Canada, China, Czechia, Ecuador, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, and the Republic of Korea. Thank you to our partner organizations for their vision and support of our mission. We look forward to future conference partnerships and welcome your inquiry into potential opportunities.

NMUN is a U.S. 501(c)(3) nonprofit, educational organization; and a nongovernmental organization formally associated with the United Nations Department of Global Communications.
